IN THE CASE OF
JERRY H. ALSTON

WVA USA

Victim of US V. Admin. Widow's Pension for 10 years

Based on 1994 income totaling $15,170.00, action taken to terminate benefits effective February 1, 1994 and debt of $18,571.00 created. In a July 1998 letter from the appellant mailed from India, she requested that her benefits be resumed.

On a VA Form 21-0518-1, Improved Pension Eligibility Verification Report, received in September 2003, the veteran indicated that she was partly disabled due to a car accident in June 1993 in New York City.

The appellant did not respond to VA letter dated in December 2003, which due to income reporting discrepancies in her file, requested her to obtain a statement from the Social Security Administration of her income from October 1, 2002.

As a result of a June 2005 Board remand another audit was conducted of the appellant's VA widow's pension benefits from February 1, 1994 to July 30, 1997, which indicated an overpayment was created in the amount of $18,571.00.

A letter was sent in August 2005, requesting that the appellant complete and return a VA Form 5655, Financial Status Report. The VA Form 5655 that was returned was incomplete as it did not provide the amount of the appellant's monthly income.

VA law provides that recovery of overpayment of any benefits shall be waived if there is no indication of fraud, misrepresentation, or bad faith on the part of the person or persons having an interest in obtaining the waiver and recovery of the indebtedness from the payee who received such benefits would be against equity and good conscience. 38 U.S.C.A. § 5302; 38 C.F.R. § 1.963(a). The standard "Equity and Good Conscience" will be applied when the facts and circumstances in a particular case indicate a need for reasonableness and moderation in the exercise of the government's rights. The decision reached should not be unduly favorable or adverse to either side.

Dear Mr. Roy:

I have received your request for a grant. Any time you have any questions regarding your transaction for a computer in 2008 is not covered with the necessary documentation that you will have to provide. The only way to resolve this objection is the funds from the money checking accounts you have opened during the year being counted as income.

The process or the requirements have not changed from your notification last year at which time we found the same issue. You have indicated that you do not have the documentation to provide. However, your issue is listed on the HUD website as an issue that we can assist you with. We are required to cover the amount of a down payment when you are approved for the funds for the year. The HUD office in Buffalo stated that you must provide verification for the accounts are not yours by providing the EY form or SMC form which are filed by the President or Director of the Organization indicating ownership. Failure to provide this information will result in these accounts being included as your personal accounts and income included in the certification process. Provided the required documentation we would be pleased to re-evaluate your rent.

Handwritten: 25

My apologies if you feel you have been harassed with requests. Non-compliance with the requirements to provide documentation for annual re-certification and signing a new lease will result in you not being eligible for subsidized housing. You would therefore be required to move.

Handwritten: 69K

If you have any questions pertaining to this matter, please contact me at 391-3650.

The April 1999 Committee decision denied the appellant's claim on grounds that she failed to file a timely claim of entitlement to waiver. Specifically, the Committee indicated that VA's Debt Management Center notified the appellant of the overpayment and her right to request waiver of recovery in 1997 and that the claim for waiver was barred as being untimely. The appellant's claims file, however, does not contain a copy of the 1997 Debt Management Center's notification letter. A VA Form 119, Report of Contact, dated in July 2005 indicates that a thorough search of the microfiche was conducted from July 28, 1997 to July 31, 1997; however, the letter notice creating the overpayment was not found. Therefore, it must be assumed that the appellant filed a timely claim for waiver.

Records show the appellant submitted the following information:

September 1994: An Improved Pension Eligibility Verification Report (EVR) received reporting $100.00 in earnings through August 31, 1994 and proposed $400.00 earnings for the next 12 months (a voluntary job at a nonprofit corporation);

July 1996: EVR received for the period July 1, 1995 to June 30, 1996, reported $51.00 income as a volunteer worker;

November 1996: Verification of income statements received from employers; 1994 income earnings noted as $8,020.00; also, New York State Unemployment states income of $7,150.00;

February 1997: EVR received reporting $125.00 net income for 1996 and $150.00 (net) for 1997.

Dear Mr. Roy:

I have received your request for a grievance. Any issue you have with Ms. Zerrahn regarding your transaction for a computer in 2008 is not covered with the housing authority it is a private matter. I will not schedule a grievance hearing and you are able to provide documentation that would allow us to exclude the income for specific accounts. Your main objection is the funds from the many checking accounts you have utilized during the year being counted as income.

The process or the requirements has not changed from your re-certification last year at which time we faced the same issues. You have indicated that some of these accounts do not belong to you. However, your name is listed on the checks and you are the named signer for the checks. We are required to count the income in these accounts unless you can document that the funds are not yours. The HUD office in Buffalo stated that you must provide verification that these accounts are not yours by providing the By-laws or SOC forms which are filed by the Board or Directors of the Organization indicating ownership. Failure to provide this information will result in these accounts being included as your personal accounts and income included in the certification process. Provided the required documentation we would be pleased to re-evaluate your rent.

My apologies if you feel you have been treated with unfairness. Non-compliance with the requirements to provide documentation for annual re-certification and signing a new lease will result in you not being eligible for subsidized housing. You would therefore be required to move.

If you have any questions pertaining to this matter, please contact me at 891-3650.

Sincerely,

David Alarich
