THOMAS G. BRUTON
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

Plaintiff's Motion for Judgment by Default for failure of Defendants to Respond to Motions served

Plaintiff, Debra Chenault, moves this Court to render a Judgment by Default. In support of this motion, Plaintiff states the following:

1) Plaintiff filed her complaint on Oct. 26, 2012, and RE/MAX was served on November 2, 2012.

2) Plaintiff filed her complaint on Oct. 26, 2012, and OWN A CONDO was served on November 5, 2012.

3) Proof of Service was provided by Sheriff of Lake County and Sheriff of Cook County to Plaintiff.

4) Because RE/MAX and OWNACONDO, LLP failed to file a response, I am requesting that Judgment by Default be taken against the defendants for the relief demanded in the complaint.

5) The Summons that each defendant was served clearly states that Judgment by Default will be taken if no answer is received within 21 days, exclusive of the day of service.

Therefore, plaintiff requests that this Court hold the defendants in judgment by Default for their failure to respond to plaintiff's Motion, and relief granted.
