

Order Form (01/2005)

United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois

Name of Assigned Judge or Magistrate Judge	Philip G. Reinhard	Sitting Judge if Other than Assigned Judge
CASE NUMBER	11 C 50137	DATE	6/08/2011
CASE TITLE	Walter Caffey (N-32718) vs. Taylor, et al.

DOCKET ENTRY TEXT

Plaintiff's motion for leave to appeal in forma pauperis [7] is denied. The court certifies that the appeal is not taken in good faith and orders the plaintiff to pay the appellate fees of $455 within fourteen days or the Court of Appeals may dismiss his appeal for want of prosecution. The court construes the motion for leave to appeal in forma pauperis as a notice of appeal. The clerk is directed to send a copy of this order to the PLRA Attorney, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

STATEMENT - OPINION

Plaintiff, Walter Caffey, currently an inmate at Dixon Correctional Center, brought this civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. On May 12, 2011, the suit was dismissed for failure to state a claim on which relief may be granted. Plaintiff now seeks leave to appeal in forma pauperis.¹

For the reasons stated in the court's March 23, 2011, order, the court finds that this action does not raise a substantial issue meriting appellate review. As plaintiff has raised none in his motion for leave to appeal in forma pauperis, the court certifies, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3), that the appeal is not in good faith and that no appeal should be taken. When a suit is found to be frivolous, an ensuing appeal generally cannot be "in good faith" under § 1915(a)(3). Moran v. Sondalle, 218 F.3d 647, 650 (7th Cir. 2000).

Under the rules of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit Court, if the district court certifies that an appeal is not taken in good faith, the appellant cannot prosecute the appeal in forma pauperis but rather must pay the appellate fees in full for the appeal to go forward. Consequently, plaintiff must pay the full $455 within fourteen days or the Court of Appeals may dismiss his appeal for want of prosecution. See Evans v. Illinois Dept. of Corrections, 150 F.3d 810, 812 (7th Cir. 1998). If plaintiff wishes to contest this court's finding that the appeal is not taken in good faith, he must file a motion with the Court of Appeals seeking review of this court's certification within thirty days of service of this order. See Fed. R. App. P. 24(a)(5).

Plaintiff is ordered to remit to the Clerk of the Court the $455 appellate fee within fourteen days of the date of this order. If plaintiff fails to comply with this order, the Court of Appeals may dismiss his appeal. Plaintiff is responsible for ensuring payment of the filing fees as directed by this order. Nonpayment for any reason other than destitution shall be construed as a voluntary relinquishment of the right to file future suits in forma pauperis. Thurman v. Gramley, 97 F.3d 185, 188 (7th Cir. 1996). The obligation to ensure full payment of the filing fees imposed by this order shall not be relieved by release or transfer to another prison. Plaintiff is under a continuing obligation to inform the Clerk of this Court in writing of any change of address within seven days.

Payment shall be sent to the Clerk, United States District Court, 219 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois 60604, attn: Cashier's Desk, 20th Floor. Payment should clearly identify the plaintiff's name, as well as the district court and appellate court case numbers assigned to this action.

The clerk is directed to send a copy of this order to the PLRA Attorney, United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

¹ The court construes the motion for leave to appeal in forma pauperis as a notice of appeal. Further, the "complaint" included with the motion sets forth essentially the same claims alleged in plaintiff's complaint which was dismissed by this court. Therefore, the court construes the "complaint" as additional support for plaintiff's motion for leave to appeal in forma pauperis.
