

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

CUSTOM BLENDING AND PACKAGING OF ST. LOUIS, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

STEVEN MOSER, JR., et al.,

Defendants.

No. 08-0592-DRH

ORDER

HERNDON, Chief Judge:

This matter comes before the Court for case management. On June 29, 2011, the Court stayed this matter pending defendant Litz's Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceedings, cancelled the July 22, 2011 show cause hearing as to the DAC defendants, including Litz, and directed the parties to notify the Court in writing when the bankruptcy proceedings were completed (Doc. 125). As the Court had not received an update on the status of the bankruptcy proceedings, the Court directed Litz to inform the Court in writing the status of the bankruptcy proceedings on April 5, 2012 (Doc. 127). On April 19, 2012, Litz filed his response indicating that his bankruptcy proceedings were resolved on October 31, 2011 (Doc. 128).¹ Thus, the Court LIFTS the stay and DIRECTS the DAC defendants and plaintiff to inform the Court in writing ¹As noted above the bankruptcy proceedings were discharged on October 31, 2011. However, the parties did not inform the Court of this until the Court directed them to do so again on April 5, 2012 despite being directed to do so on June 29, 2011. This begs the question why was the Court's directive not followed. When the Court directs counsel to take some action, the Court fully expects counsel to so act.

on or before May 4, 2012 the status of this case; in particular the status of the pending motion to show cause why DAC defendants should not be held in civil contempt (Doc. 122).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed this 20th day of April, 2012.
