Herndon, Chief Judge:

On December 12, 2008, the United States of America ("USA") commenced the above-captioned mortgage foreclosure suit against Terri G. Ray and Gene Ray. The parcel of property in question is located in Flora, Illinois, which lies within this Judicial District. Defendant(s) was/were properly served herein but failed to move, answer, or otherwise plead in response to the complaint. Based on that failure, the USA secured the Clerk's entry of default on June 11, 2009, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a).

Now before this Court is the USA's motion for default judgment under Rule 55(b). Having carefully reviewed the record, the Court GRANTS the motion for default judgment (Doc. 15), after FINDING as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction of the parties to and subject matter of this suit. The Defendants were properly served and having failed to answer or otherwise enter any appearance herein, are properly defaulted.

2. The USA, acting through the Rural Housing Service or successor agency, United States Department of Agriculture, made a loan to Terri G. Ray and Gene Ray, secured by a mortgage dated February 14, 2006 (Exh. A of the complaint), in the total principal amount of $54,500.00. The mortgage was recorded on February 15, 2006, in Clay County, Illinois as Document No. 156578. The loans is evidenced by a promissory note dated February 14, 2006 (Exh. B). Defendants, Terri G. Ray and Gene Ray, defaulted on the note. 3. The following persons may have claimed an interest in the above described property, but are foreclosed from asserting their claim, if any, because of their default in this action:

Terri G. Ray and Gene Ray

4. By virtue of the mortgage and indebtedness thereby secured, the USA has a valid and subsisting lien as follows:

6. Clay County, Illinois, has a valid lien on the above-described property for tax for the year 2008, and the property will be sold subject to the interest of Clay County, resulting from taxes, general or special, which are a valid lien against the property.

Accordingly the Court GRANTS the USA's motion fo default judgment (Doc. 15). JUDGMENT IS HEREBY ENTERED against Terri G. Ray and Gene Ray, for $49,100.08. Unless Terri G. The property shall be sold free and clear of any claimed lien of Terri G. Ray and Gene Ray.

The United States Marshal for the Southern District of Illinois shall give public notice of the time, place, and terms of such sale, together with a description of the premises as referred to in paragraph 4 of this Judgment and Order Directing Sale of Mortgaged Property to be sold, by previously publishing the same once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks as provided by law in a secular newspaper of general publication in the State of Illinois, the first publication to be not

If the purchaser at the judicial sale of residential property is a mortgagor who is a party to this proceeding or its nominee, and if the sale price is less than the amount required to redeem specified in 735 ILL. COMP. STAT 5/15-1604, an owner of redemption has a special right to redeem for a period ending 30 days after the date the sale is confirmed by paying the mortgagee the sale price plus all additional costs and expenses incurred by the mortgagee set forth in the report of sale and confirmed by this Court.

The redemption period shall end in this case on the latter of (1) seven months after service on the mortgagor(s), or (2) three months after the date of entry of the Judgment/Order. 735 ILCS § 5/15-1603 (b) (1).

The United States Marshal shall take receipts from the respective parties from whom he may make payments aforesaid and file the same together with his report of sale to this Court. If the property shall sell for a sum more than sufficient to make the aforesaid payments, then after making the payments, the United States Marshal shall bring such surplus monies into Court without delay for further distribution by order of this Court.

From the date of entry of this Judgment and Order Directing Sale of Mortgaged Property through the 30th day after a foreclosure sale is confirmed by this Court, the mortgagors shall be entitled to retain possession of the above-described property.

After the 30th day the foreclosure sale is confirmed, the holder of the Certificate of Sale shall be entitled to immediate possession of the property upon payment of the sale purchase price, without notice to any party or further order of the Court. The mortgagors shall peaceably surrender possession of the property to said certificate holder immediately upon expiration of the said 30-day time period. In default of mortgagors so doing, an Order of Ejectment shall issue.

Upon or after confirmation of sale, the person who conducted the sale or the Court shall execute a deed to the holder of the Certificate of Sale sufficient to convey title, which deed shall identify the Court and the caption of the case in which judgment was entered authorizing issuance of the deed. Signature and the recital in the deed of the title or authority of the person signing the deed as grantor, of authority pursuant to this Judgment and Order Directing Sale of Mortgaged Property, and of the giving of the notices required by statute shall be sufficient proof of the facts recited and of such authority to execute the deed, but the deed shall not be construed to contain any covenant on the part of the person executing it.

Delivery of the deed executed on the sale of the property, even if the purchaser or holder of the certificate of sale is a party to the foreclosure, shall be sufficient to pass the title thereto. The conveyance shall be an entire bar of (i) all claims of parties to the foreclosure and (ii) all claims of any non-record claimant who is given notice of the foreclosure as provided by statute.

If the monies from the sale are insufficient to pay sums due to the USA with interest after deducting the costs, the United States Marshal shall specify the amount of the deficiency in his report.
