MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

WILKERSON, Magistrate Judge:

On January 6, 2016, District Judge Nancy J. Rosenstengel directed the recruitment of counsel for Plaintiff in light of the current posture of the case. (Doc. 53)

Accordingly, Attorney David S. Rosenbloom of the firm McDermott, Will & Emery (Chicago) is recruited to represent Plaintiff in this Court only.¹ Attorney Rosenbloom is encouraged to share his responsibilities with an associate who is also admitted to practice in this district court. Attorney Rosenbloom shall enter his appearance on or before January 25, 2016.

Plaintiff is cautioned to consult with his counsel in this matter and to understand that it is Mr. Rosenbloom who is the legal professional in this relationship. Without commenting on the validity of the matter in litigation, counsel is reminded and plaintiff is advised that counsel, even though appointed by the Court, has an obligation under the rules to refrain from filing frivolous pleadings. As a consequence, counsel will likely, from time to time, advise Plaintiff against taking a certain course of action. While Plaintiff may not totally agree with counsel's advice, he should realize that, in the long run, such advice will be in his best interest because it is in compliance with the law. Also, counsel may advise Plaintiff to pursue additional claims or to abandon certain existing claims.

Counsel, of course, maintains an ethical obligation to fully and vigorously represent his client, but only to the extent that it does not impede his ethical obligation to follow the rules of the Court and the law. If Plaintiff wants to be represented by counsel, he will have to cooperate fully with counsel. The Court will not accept any filings from Plaintiff individually while he is represented by counsel, except a pleading that asks that he be allowed to have counsel withdraw from representation. If counsel is allowed to withdraw at the request of Plaintiff, it is unlikely the Court will appoint other counsel to represent him.

Because Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis, if there is a monetary recovery in this case (either by verdict or settlement), any unpaid out-of-pocket costs must be paid from the proceeds. See SDIL-LR 3.1(c)(1). If there is no recovery in the case (or the costs exceed any recovery), the Court has the discretion reimburse expenses. The funds available for this purpose are limited, and counsel should use the utmost care when incurring out-of-pocket costs. In no event will funds be reimbursed if the expenditure is found to be without a proper basis. The Court has no authority to pay attorney's fees in this case. Counsel is encouraged to enter into a fee contract with Plaintiff to address both the payment of attorney's fees and costs should Plaintiff prevail.

Finally, counsel is informed that Plaintiff is currently incarcerated by the Illinois Department of Corrections at the Stateville Correctional Center. Information about the facility is available at www.idoc.state.il.us. Counsel may use the Illinois Department of Corrections' videoconferencing system to confer with Plaintiff. The Court asks the Assistant Attorney General assigned to this case to facilitate those arrangements.

This matter is SET for a telephonic status conference on February 16, 2016 at 3:00 p.m. Defendant to initiate the conference call. The Court's conference number is 618-482-9004. Parties should be prepared to discuss the schedule in this matter.

The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Order and the standard letter concerning appointment of counsel to Attorney Rosenbloom immediately.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: January 7, 2016

DONALD G. WILKERSON
United States Magistrate Judge
