2. Defendant Noble County Sheriff, prior to production of the records, is to redact any information in the records that would tend to identify the inmate to who the record pertains. Each inmate for whom a record is provided is to be identified by a number assigned by Defendant prior to production.

3. The Interrogatory answer and requested records are to be provided to Plaintiff within thirty days of the date of this Order.
4. To obtain identifying information for any inmate for whom a redacted record has been produced, Plaintiff must first petition the Court for an order to release the identifying information.
5. Plaintiff's Request for Attorney Fees has been withdrawn.

In summary, Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Production of Documents and Answers to Interrogatories (Docket # 37) is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART.
