ORDER

On January 14, 2020, the Court conducted a hearing on Anna Marie Hearn's motion to withdraw as counsel for David Snyder. At the hearing Ms. Hearn appeared for Mr. Snyder. Brian R. Gates appeared as Trustee for the bankruptcy estate of Dorothy Snyder and appearing for the Defendants was Matthew L. Hinkle.

At the hearing, Ms. Hearn informed the Court that Mr. Snyder wishes to abandon his claim and that she will be filing a motion to dismiss his claim. Additionally, the Defendants indicated that they intend to file a dispositive motion on the question of qualified immunity. It was suggested, and all counsel agreed, that it would be best to stage discovery in this case.

Accordingly, because Ms. Hearn intends to file a motion to dismiss Mr. Snyder's claim, her motion to withdraw as counsel for Mr. Snyder [Document No. 26] is now DENIED. Accordingly, the deadline for discovery on all matters relating to the issues of qualified immunity shall be May 15, 2010. The Defendants shall then have until June 14, 2010, to file any dispositive motion regarding qualified immunity. Plaintiff shall have 30 days then to respond and the Defendants 15 days to reply. Should the Court deny the dispositive motion, the parties shall submit to the Court a case management plan addressing discovery needs and deadlines on the merits. The revised case management plan is to be filed 30 days following the denial of the qualified immunity dispositive motion.

SO ORDERED.
