ORDER

The Court referred the plaintiff’s motion for preliminary injunction to Magistrate Judge Michael G. Gotsch. On June 2, 2017, he issued a report and recommendation, in which he recommended that the motion be denied. ECF 169. The parties were informed that they had fourteen days after being served with a copy of the report and recommendation to file any written objections. More than fourteen days have passed and no party filed any objection. Willis v. Caterpillar, Inc., 199 F.3d 902, 904 (7th Cir. 1999)(explaining that the failure to file a timely objection will result in the waiver of the right to challenge a report and recommendation).

For these reasons, the court ADOPTS the report and recommendation (ECF 169) of the magistrate judge, and DENIES the motions¹ for preliminary injunction (ECF 157, 163).

SO ORDERED.

 Judge
 United States District Court

¹After Scruggs’ motion was referred to the magistrate judge, he filed a second, identical motion for preliminary injunction. Scruggs’ second motion is denied for the same reasons that Magistrate Judge Gotsch identified in his report and recommendation.
