Nature of Case: Trademark infringement, unfair competition, and dilution.
Plaintiff alleges the name Oogles n Googles infringes Plaintiffs trademarks.

Defenses: Defendants contend Plaintiff has no trademark rights in its Googles logo and other alleged trademarks as those marks have not been used to identify the source or origin of goods or services, and/or have been abandoned by Plaintiff or purported prior owners. In any event, there is no likelihood of confusion between the Oogles n Googles name and Plaintiff alleged trademarks. Additionally, Plaintiff and/or the prior owner of the Googles logo committed fraud on the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office with respect to renewal of the registration for the Googles logo.
