CASE NO.

STELOR PRODUCTIONS, L.L.C., a
Delaware corporation, f/k/a STELOR
PRODUCTIONS, INC.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CIV-HURLEY

STEVEN A. SILVERS, a Florida resident,

Defendant.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff STELOR PRODUCTIONS, L.L.C., f/k/a STELOR PRODUCTIONS, INC. ("Stelor"), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby files this Complaint against Defendant STEVEN A. SILVERS ("Silvers") and alleges as follows:

1. This is a civil action seeking an injunction, a declaratory judgment, and other relief based upon Silvers' breach of a settlement agreement between the parties, his failure to honor another agreement between the parties, and the harm and threatened harm engendered by his actions.

Parties, Jurisdiction and Venue

2. Stelor is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, and having its principal place of business in Darnestown, Maryland. Stelor converted from a corporation to a limited liability company effective on or about March 14, 2005.

3. Silvers is a resident of Palm Beach County, Florida and is sui juris.

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction based on diversity of citizenship pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a). The parties are residents of different states and the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), exclusive of interest and costs. This Court also has jurisdiction under the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201, because the parties' irreconcilable differences in the interpretation of specific contractual provisions, combined with Silvers' threats and breaches have created a justiciable case or controversy between the parties.

5. Stelor's claims arise in whole or in part in the Southern District of Florida. The contracts at issue in this action specifically provide that all disputes are to be resolved by this Court and that the parties consent to jurisdiction in this Court. Silvers also resides in this District. Venue is accordingly proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a).

Factual Allegations

6. In 1991, Silvers published a children's edutainment book entitled Googles and the Planet of Goo about four loveable alien creatures called "Googles". That book displayed the trademark GOOGLES & Design on the outside back cover. Silvers registered copyrights in that book and additional related works from 1991 through 1994. In 1995, Silvers applied for a design patent on a tennis shoe having the GOOGLES & Design trademark displayed in at least four places on it (and that patent was subsequently issued September 1, 1998). On August 2, 1996, a company controlled by Silvers, The Googles Children's Workshop, Inc., filed an application for federal registration in the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") of GOOGLES & Design as a trademark for "children's books" claiming use since June 1994. That application matured into Registration No. 2,087,590 issued August 12, 1997.

7. On July 18, 1997, Silvers registered the domain name googles.com and, on or about that date, started using GOOGLES as a service mark on his website for pre-school and young children (the GOOGLES & Design Trademark, Copyrights, Domain Name, and Patent will be collectively referred to as "GOOGLES IP"). As a natural expansion of the GOOGLES children's book and website, there have been sales of children's merchandise related to the Googles characters, namely, GOOGLES stickers, plush toys and music CDs, and distribution of GOOGLES children's T-shirts.

8. Despite these efforts to preserve, expand and promote the GOOGLES IP, Silvers' venture made little impact in a marketplace crowded with children's materials from bigger and better financed providers. In an effort to successfully capitalize on the GOOGLES IP, Silvers sought partners to carry forward his vision. An initial effort between Silvers and Aurora Collection, Inc. ("Aurora") failed and Silvers thereafter sought another partner. Silvers was in no position to move forward alone, as he had many personal and business hurdles to overcome. Significant among them were a lack of capital, a lack of connections, a lack of experience, a lack of access to financing, an increasingly adverse relationship with Aurora, and negative aspects of Silvers' background that made him unsuited to serve as figurehead or spokesman for an enterprise aimed at providing wholesome and enriching entertainment to an audience of impressionable children.

9. Accordingly, when Stelor was formed to develop Silvers' concept into a reality, Stelor's enthusiasm and interest were tempered by legitimate concerns and reservations. Stelor saw potential in the GOOGLES IP and Stelor's founders also had confidence in their ability to raise the needed funds and to create a compelling and attractive "Googles" universe that would enlighten, entertain, educate, and develop children by providing them with fascinating and uplifting products, programs and services. But aware of Aurora's aborted effort, and wary that Silvers' background could jeopardize the "Googles" program, Stelor insisted that any arrangement with Silvers contain safeguards and protections.

10. Thus, when on or around June 1, 2002, Stelor and Silvers entered into a "License, Distribution and Manufacturing Agreement" ("License Agreement") and a Consulting Agreement (true and correct copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits "A" and "B", respectively), Stelor bargained for, and obtained, promises, commitments and obligations from Silvers designed to ensure Stelor's ability to develop the "Googles" program free from undue interference by Silvers. The License Agreement gives Stelor the sole and exclusive worldwide license to commercialize the Googles characters and the GOOGLES IP. Among the pertinent provisions of the License Agreement and the Consulting Agreement are the following:

(a) The License Agreement gives Stelor exclusive rights in the "Googles" products, trademarks and intellectual property and specifies that those rights are exclusive even as to Silvers (Ex. "A" at ¶¶ IA, IB).

(b) The License Agreement gives Stelor an irrevocable power of attorney to apply for, maintain, enforce and defend intellectual property rights, including trademarks, websites and domain names. Stelor, not Silvers, assumed responsibility for handling all Googles trademark and other intellectual property matters (Ex. "A" at ¶ VIII A).

(c) The License Agreement and the Consulting Agreement require Silvers to fully cooperate with Stelor, while the Consulting Agreement makes plain that Silvers shall have no power to direct or control the daily activities of Stelor (Ex. "A" at ¶ VIII E; Ex. "B" at ¶ 3).

(d) Finally, to protect Stelor from possible public embarrassment, both the License Agreement and the Consulting Agreement expressly prohibit Silvers from initiating or maintaining “any relationship or conversation with [Stelor’s] current or prospective clients, vendors, any company relationships with the media (press, etc.), without the prior express written request by [Stelor].”

11. Silvers freely agreed to these and other contractual obligations and restrictions. Stelor, believing it had the necessary rights and protections, then threw itself enthusiastically into the task of using its best efforts to develop The Googles concept and intellectual property. To this end, Stelor has spent millions of dollars, and its principals and employees have devoted themselves tirelessly to making Stelor and the “Googles” successful and profitable, both for themselves and for the benefit of Silvers.

12. Notwithstanding his contractual agreements, Silvers displayed an unwillingness to abide by his obligations and commenced a campaign to inject and entwine himself into the very fabric of Stelor’s business. He subverted Stelor’s intellectual property rights by diverting communications from the USPTO from Stelor to himself. He interfered with litigation undertaken by Stelor against third parties. He held himself out as a Stelor representative at crucial industry trade shows. He threatened to communicate directly with the trade and press concerning the GOOGLES IP. He withheld information vital to Stelor’s ability to carry out the business of transforming the basic Googles idea into a thriving and profitable business and denied it access to Googles domain names. All of these actions were in violation of the License Agreement.

13. As a result of Silvers' actions, Stelor was left with no choice other than to file a complaint against him for injunctive, declaratory and other relief related to his breaches. The Complaint was filed on or about October 18, 2004 and the cause was styled Stelor Productions, Inc. v. Steven A. Silvers, Case No. 04-80954-Civ-Hurley, United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida ("the prior litigation"). The Complaint sought injunctive relief requiring Silvers to notify the USPTO that it was to communicate with Stelor, to provide Stelor with access to the Googles domain names, to refrain from communicating with the media and vendors concerning the GOOGLES IP, and to refrain from interfering in litigation undertaken by Stelor, as well as a declaration that Stelor was in compliance with the Licensing Agreement. Silvers subsequently filed a counterclaim asserting that Stelor was in breach and he purported to terminate the License Agreement.

14. On or about January 28, 2005, Stelor and Silvers entered into a Confidential Settlement Agreement ("Settlement Agreement") resolving the prior litigation. A true and correct copy of the Settlement Agreement is being filed with the Court separately under seal, in accordance with its terms.

15. Among other things, the Settlement Agreement vindicated the positions taken by Stelor in the prior litigation. The Settlement Agreement gives Stelor the right to control the domain names, requires Silvers to cooperate in all respects in pending and future trademark and domain name dispute proceedings filed by Stelor, withdraws Silvers' purported termination of the License Agreement and reaffirms his obligations under it, and makes Stelor's counsel the sole correspondent with the USPTO. The Settlement Agreement also required the dismissal of the prior litigation, with a reservation of exclusive continuing jurisdiction with the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida to enforce its terms, with the prevailing party in any enforcement action recovering reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Silvers was paid valuable consideration for entering into the Settlement Agreement.

16. On February 8, 2005, Stelor and Silvers filed a Joint Stipulation of Dismissal without Prejudice of the prior litigation. The stipulation was granted by Order dated February 17, 2005 and the prior litigation was administratively closed.

17. Unfortunately, soon thereafter, Silvers once again proved himself unwilling to abide by the terms of his contractual undertakings. He repeatedly failed to cooperate in pending and future trademark and domain name dispute proceedings. He repeatedly failed to provide evidence of paid insurance premiums. And, most importantly, he schemed to undo Stelor's business activities and steal its work.

18. As he did in the prior litigation when he purported to terminate the License Agreement, only to withdraw the notice of termination and reaffirm his obligations under the License Agreement, Silvers has once again purported to terminate the License Agreement. By letter dated April 27, 2005, counsel for Silvers wrote to Steven Esrig of Stelor reinstating the notice of termination of the License Agreement based on five invalid grounds. A true and correct copy of the April 27 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

19. Counsel for Stelor responded by letter dated April 29, 2005, in which Stelor refuted each of the specious grounds cited by Silvers, offered to cure any conceivable breaches, and demanded withdrawal of the notice of termination, confirmation that Silvers would abide by the terms of the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement, and written assurance that Silvers will make no efforts to interfere in any manner with the business of Stelor. Specifically, Stelor demonstrated that it has met its obligation to offer unit interests to Silvers, it has paid or attempted to pay all royalty advances that Silvers could possibly claim, it has cooperated in the audit of the books and records, it has offered to make samples of licensed products available, and it has provided a royalty statement showing that no royalties are owed. A true and correct copy of the April 29 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "D".

20. On May 2, 2005, Silvers' counsel dispatched a letter refusing to comply with the reasonable demands made by Stelor. Indeed, the letter, in stating that Silvers "intends to go in a different direction to develop his characters and intellectual property", essentially conceded that Silvers is planning immediate actions that are prohibited by the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement and violative of Stelor's rights under those agreements, notwithstanding the fact that the License Agreement requires 60 days notice and an opportunity to cure prior to termination. See Ex. "A" at ¶ IX. A true and correct copy of the May 2 letter (which bears the erroneous year "2004" rather than "2005", as correctly reflected in the facsimile transmission information) is attached hereto as Exhibit "E".

21. Silvers began acting on the threat made in his counsel's letter before the letter was dispatched, even though his notice of termination, even if valid, is not effective until June 26, 2005. On April 28, 2005, Stelor learned from godaddy.com, a domain name registrar, that Silvers had violated the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement by changing 78 different Googles domain names from Stelor's control to Silvers' control and improperly excluded Stelor from being the administrative contact with the domain name registrar. Due to Silvers' actions in violation of the agreements, Stelor is currently unable to reassert control over the domain names that it has licensed.

22. Moreover, Silvers hijacked the entirety of the content of the website located at www.google.com and developed, produced and operated by Stelor at great expense. Stelor received notice of this conduct on May 3, 2005 from Verio, Inc., a web hosting firm, which informed that another customer (obviously Silvers) had requested to add google.com to their account, at which point Stelor learned that the website had been deactivated and brought down. Having taken this action in express violation of the agreements, Silvers has taken from Stelor content in which it has made a seven-figure investment, and has taken from Stelor the ability to control intellectual property that it has licensed and that it has created.

23. In doing so, Silvers has essentially put Stelor out of business. Without its website content, Stelor cannot display its product and meet with potential licensees. It cannot demonstrate its product to its users and their customers. It cannot launch and protect pending expansions to its brand. Advertisements that have been placed promoting the website for an upcoming trade show have been rendered useless and, as a result, Stelor's reputation has been damaged and it has lost industry goodwill. Moreover, its ability to prepare and submit materials for that trade show has been compromised. Yesterday, Stelor was actively advancing the business on all fronts. Today, it can do nothing.

24. Furthermore, Stelor developed the content and exclusively operated the website devoted to the "Googles" characters, offering a variety of services and features geared to delighting children and their parents. The website is the public's window into the Googles' world. Being able to operate and modify this website is among Stelor's most important priorities. Yesterday, the website was filled with intellectual property and content created by Stelor. Today, as a result of Silvers' dishonesty and maliciousness, the intellectual property has been taken from Stelor's control and the website has been destroyed, replaced with a message created by Silvers, presumably. A true and correct copy of the current website content established after Silvers hijacked the site is attached hereto as Exhibit "F". Without immediate entry of an injunction, the harm to Stelor will be irreparable.

25. All conditions precedent to the commencement of this action have either occurred, been waived or been excused.

26. Stelor has retained undersigned counsel to prosecute this action and is obligated to them for reasonable attorney's fees and costs in connection therewith.

COUNT ONE
(Breach of Contract)

27. Stelor re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 26, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

28. Silvers' actions set forth above constitute material breaches of the Licensing Agreement and the Settlement Agreement.

29. As a result of Silvers' actions, Stelor has been damaged.

30. Silvers' breaches have caused irreparable injury to Stelor.

31. Stelor has no adequate remedy at law.

32. Furthermore, if Silvers is free to ignore the terms of the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement, nothing prevents him from negotiating directly with Google, Inc. and Stelor is in reasonable fear that Silvers either has already done so or will do so if not enjoined. The Settlement Agreement expressly provides that any attempt to negotiate with Google, Inc. without Stelor's participation constitutes a breach of the Settlement Agreement that creates irreparable harm and for which injunctive relief will be necessary to maintain the rights of the non-breaching party. Both Stelor and Silvers agreed to the issuance of injunctive relief to prevent such a breach.

COUNT TWO
(Declaratory Judgment)

33. Stelor re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 26, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

34. This is a claim for declaratory judgment under the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201.

35. By virtue of his notice of termination (Exhibit "C"), Silvers has taken the position that Stelor has breached the Settlement Agreement and that the License Agreement is terminated. As detailed above, Silvers has also taken actions in violation of his obligations and undertakings pursuant to the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement, in apparent reliance upon his purported termination of the License Agreement.

36. Stelor believes that the Settlement Agreement and the License Agreement are valid and effective contractual commitments that continue to bind the parties. Stelor further contends that Silvers' prior actions, his current actions and his threatened future conduct both violate the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the License Agreement and threaten the business of Stelor. Stelor additionally has ongoing financial obligations under the Settlement Agreement that it is prepared to meet, but which are not required if the License Agreement has been terminated.

37. Accordingly, Stelor is in doubt about its rights and Silvers' rights under the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and agreements set forth herein, the parties, each intending to be legally bound hereby, do hereby agree as follows:

I. LICENSE GRANT

A LICENSOR hereby grants to LICENSEE, for the Term of this Agreement as recited in "Schedule A" attached hereto, the exclusive (even as to LICENSOR), worldwide, sub licensable right and license to use, reproduce, modify, create derivative works of, manufacture, have manufactured, market, advertise, sell, distribute, display, perform, and otherwise commercialize the Licensed Products and Licensed Properties in the Territory. The license includes a license under any and all intellectual property rights and interests therein, including by way of explanation, products which deal with the creative characters known as The Googies, anything that contains the letters GOO (in upper or lower case) together with any and all products, which comprise and which will comprise those characters, likenesses, which include Iggle, Oogle, Oogle, Gooroo, Gootian(s), the planet Goo, slides, computer web site(s), membership lists, clubs, materials, patterns, prototypes, logos, trademarks, service marks, clothing, merchandise, educational products, marketing and promotional data and tools, packaging and advertising, modifications, updates and variations, and all other items associated therewith whether in singular or plural

B. LICENSOR hereby grants to LICENSEE for the term of this Agreement as recited in "Schedule A" attached hereto, the exclusive (even as to LICENSOR), worldwide, and licensable right and license to use the Licensed Trademarks on or in association with the Licensed Products as well as on packaging, promotional, and advertising material associated therewith

C. LICENSEE shall have the right to sublicense LICENSEE's rights under this Agreement, provided that any and all such sublicenses shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement

D. No licenses will be deemed to have been granted by either party to any of its Intellectual Property Rights, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement

E. LICENSEE agrees to place on all Licensed Products, where practicable, the phrase "created by Steven A. Silvers" or other similar wording

II. TERM OF THE AGREEMENT

This Agreement and the provisions hereof, except as otherwise provided, shall be in full force and effect commencing on the date of execution by both parties and shall extend for a Term as recited in "Schedule A" attached hereto (the "Term")

III. COMPENSATION

A. In consideration for the licenses granted hereunder, LICENSEE agrees to pay to LICENSOR, during the Term of this Agreement, a royalty in the amount recited in "Schedule A" attached hereto (the "Royalty") based on LICENSEE's Net Sales of Licensed Products. "Net Sales" shall mean the gross revenues on a cash basis (i.e., actually collected by LICENSEE but without counting any gross revenues twice) excluding shipping and handling charges, sales taxes, VAT, and other taxes imposed upon sales less (i) customary trade discounts, (ii) allowances actually shown on the invoice (except cash discounts not deductible in the calculation of Royalty) (iii) bona fide returns, charge backs, refunds or credits (net of all returns actually made or allowed as supported by memoranda actually issued to the customer), (iv) sales of remainder inventory made at less than the total of LICENSEE's actual cost of goods and actual direct selling costs solely for purposes of liquidation or close-out, (v) other uncollectible accounts, (vi) cooperative advertising allowances, (vii) sales commissions paid

B. The Royalty owed LICENSOR shall be calculated on a quarterly calendar basis on collected funds (the "Royalty Period") and shall be payable no later than thirty (30) days after the termination of the preceding full calendar quarter, i.e., commencing on the first (1st) day of January, April, July and October with the exception of the first and last calendar quarters which may be "short" depending upon the effective date of this Agreement

C. With each Royalty Payment, LICENSEE shall provide LICENSOR with a written royalty statement in a form acceptable to Licensor. Such royalty statement shall be certified as accurate by a duly authorized officer of Licensee, reciting on a country-by-country basis, the stock number, item, units sold, description, quantity shipped, gross invoice, amount billed to customers less discounts, allowances, returns and reportable sales for each Licensed Product. Such statements shall be furnished to Licensor whether or not any Licensed Products were sold during the Royalty Period. The LICENSEE hereby further agrees to provide the LICENSOR with a list of all of its sub licensees added during the current royalty period.

D. If LICENSEE sells any Licensed Products to any party affiliated with LICENSEE or in any way directly or indirectly related to or under the common control with LICENSEE, at a price less than the average weighted price charged to other parties, the Royalty payable to LICENSOR shall be computed on the basis of the averaged weighted price charged to other parties if the Licensed Products are not ultimately resold to unaffiliated third parties

E. All payments due hereunder shall be made in United States currency drawn on a United States bank, unless otherwise specified between the parties and may offset or be offset from any other payments due to LICENSEE under this or any other agreement between the parties.

F. Late payments shall incur interest at the rate of ONE PERCENT (1%) per month from the date such payments were originally due.

IV. AUDIT

A. LICENSOR shall have the right, at its own expense, to have a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm, upon at least thirty (30) days written notice and no more than twice per calendar year, to inspect during normal business hours, LICENSEE's books and records and all other documents and material in the possession of or under the control of LICENSEE with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement at the place or places where such records are normally retained by LICENSEE.

B. In the event that such inspection reveals an underpayment discrepancy greater than 5% of the amount of Royalty owed LICENSOR from what was actually paid, LICENSEE shall have the opportunity to conduct its own audit. If LICENSEE agrees to the amount, if any, of any discrepancy, LICENSEE shall pay such discrepancy, plus interest, calculated at the rate of ONE AND ONE-HALF PERCENT (1 1/2%) per month. Upon settlement of any underpayment discrepancy, no further audit by LICENSOR shall be requested that year. That period end date shall represent the new period start date for future audits for underpayment discrepancies. In the event that such discrepancy is in excess of TEN THOUSAND UNITED STATES DOLLARS ($10,000.00), LICENSEE shall also reimburse LICENSOR for the cost of auditing fees in connection therewith.

C. All books and records relative to LICENSEE's obligations hereunder shall be maintained and kept accessible and available to LICENSOR for inspection for at least three (3) years after the expiration of the initial or any subsequent term.

D. In the event that an investigation of LICENSEE's books and records is made, certain confidential and proprietary business information of LICENSEE may necessarily be made available to the person or persons conducting such investigation. It is agreed that such confidential and proprietary business information shall be held in confidence by LICENSOR and shall not be used by LICENSOR or disclosed to any third party for a period of two (2) years from the date of disclosure, or without the prior express written permission of LICENSEE, unless required by law, except LICENSOR may not disclose at any time to any third party any such confidential and proprietary business information which are trade secrets of LICENSEE. It is understood and agreed, however, that such information may be used by LICENSOR in any proceeding based on LICENSEE's failure to pay its actual Royalty obligation.

VIII. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY PROTECTION

A. Dear Mr. Esrig:

On November 12, 2004, we served notice on Stelor that it was in breach of several material provisions of both the License Agreement and Letter Agreement, a copy of which is attached. Because Stelor did not cure those breaches, on January 13, 2005 we served on Stelor a notice of termination of the License Agreement, a copy of which is attached.

On January 28, 2005, Stelor and Silvers entered into a Settlement Agreement in which Silvers agreed to withdraw his notice of termination provided Stelor perform its obligations under the Settlement Agreement. Stelor, however, has:

- failed to provide Silvers with unit interests in Stelor LLC under paragraph 9;
- failed to pay Silvers monthly installments on royalty advances on the first of every month under paragraph 10 (a);
- failed to pay on April 1, 2005 the monthly advance on royalties required by Silver to maintain his insurance coverage through the Aurora Collection under paragraph 10 (b);
- failed to cooperate in the audit of the books and records of Stelor under paragraph 14; and
- failed to provide Silvers samples of Licensed Products that are being offered for sale under paragraph 15.

Furthermore, although Stelor has provided a written statement that it is not offering any

Furthermore, although Stelor has provided a written statement that it is not offering any products for sale, and no royalties due, that statement has proven to be false.

Stelor continues to be in breach of the License Agreement as outlined in our letter of November 12, 2004. This is to provide notice to you that due to Stelor's failure to perform its obligations under the Settlement Agreement, and failure to cure the breaches under the License Agreement, Silvers is reinstating his notice of termination of the License Agreement effective immediately.

Pursuant to paragraph X of the License Agreement, Stelor must immediately provide Silvers with a complete schedule of all inventory of Licensed Products on hand or on order. Stelor has six (6) months to continue to sell this Inventory, if any, in accordance with the License Agreement. So long as Stelor is actively selling its inventory of Licensed Products, it may continue the use of the Licensed Intellectual Property associated with the inventory for this period. Outside the scope of its efforts to sell its inventory of Licensed Products, Stelor must immediately cease use of the Licensed Intellectual Property, including names, trademarks, signs, advertising, web site, and anything else that might make it appear that it is still handling the articles and products relating to the Googles IP. Further, Stelor must return to Silvers all material relating to the Licensed Intellectual Property and inform its sub-licensees and those selling Googles related merchandise of the termination of the License Agreement.

Because the License Agreement is now terminated, Stelor may not represent Silvers' interest in any legal proceeding or action.

Sincerely,

Re: Silvers/Stelor License Agreement

Dear Mr. Esrig:

As you know we represent Steven Silvers, Licensor under the License, Distribution and Manufacturing Agreement dated June 1, 2002 ("License Agreement"), and party to the Letter Agreement dated June 1, 2002 ("Letter Agreement"). On November 12, 2004 we served notice on Stelor that it was in breach of several material provisions of both the License Agreement and Letter Agreement, a copy of which is attached.

Pursuant to paragraph 1(c) of the Letter Agreement, and paragraph IX-A of the License Agreement, this serves as notice that Mr. Silvers is exercising his option to terminate the License Agreement for Stelor's failure to cure its breach of the Letter Agreement within thirty (30) days, and breach of the License Agreement within sixty (60) days.

Pursuant to paragraph X of the License Agreement, Stelor must immediately provide Mr. Silvers with a complete schedule of all inventory of Licensed Products on hand or on order. Stelor has six (6) months to continue to sell this inventory in accordance with the License Agreement. So long as Stelor is actively selling its inventory of Licensed Products, it may continue the use of the Licensed Intellectual Property associated with the inventory for this period. Outside the scope of its efforts to sell its inventory of Licensed Products, Stelor must immediately cease use of the Licensed Intellectual Property, including names, trademarks, signs, advertising and anything else that might make it appear that it is still handling the articles and products of Mr. Silver. Further, Stelor must return to Mr. Silvers all material relating to the Licensed Intellectual Property and inform its sub-licensees of the termination of the License Agreement.

Because the License Agreement is terminated, Stelor may not proceed to represent the interests of Mr. Silvers in TTAB Opposition Proceeding No. 91161251, TTAB Cancellation Proceeding No. 92043496, the domain dispute against Google pending before the National

Steven A. Esrig

Arbitration Forum, or participate in TTAB Cancellation Proceeding No. 92043737. And, because the License Agreement is terminated, the action pending in federal district court is now moot. Thus, we will file the appropriate notices in these proceedings.

Our client regrets that this relationship did not work out, and would like very much to keep the relationship amicable throughout the six month inventory sell-off period.

Sincerely,

Re: Silvers/Stelor

Dear Gail:

I write in response to your letter dated April 27, 2005 to Steven Esrig of Stelor Productions purporting to terminate the License Agreement. It is the position of Stelor that the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement remain enforceable and binding documents and that the purported grounds for termination are all invalid and improper. We will respond to each of those grounds in turn.

First, Stelor has only recently converted to an LLC and Mr. Silvers has been provided an option letter for unit interests, to which he has not responded.

Second, monthly installments on royalty advancements have been paid. Indeed, enclosed are copies of royalty advancement checks for April and May that we are prepared to release upon withdrawal of the notice of termination.

Third, monthly advances on royalties to maintain insurance coverage have also been paid. Enclosed are checks for April and May that we are prepared to release upon withdrawal of the notice of termination. It must be noted, however, that, despite demand, Mr. Silvers has never confirmed the amount of insurance to be paid. As a show of good faith, Stelor has nonetheless paid the maximum each month, but such confirmation must be provided forthwith.

Fourth, Stelor has cooperated in the audit of the books and records. In fact, just a week ago, on April 22, 2005, you sent an email to Kevin Kaplan stating that "[t]he auditor is preparing a letter that will outline the documents and records he will need available at Stelor to do the audit." We have received no such letter. Whenever Stelor receives such a letter, it will cooperate.

Fifth, samples of licensed products have been collected and are available to Mr. Silvers pursuant to the agreement, provided that the notice of termination is withdrawn and it is understood that the agreements remain in place.

Gail A. McQuilkin, Esq.
April 29, 2005

Finally, no royalties are owed to your client and the advances paid far exceed royalties that have been accumulated. A royalty statement is enclosed reflecting full payment of any amounts due. To the extent that there are any concerns, they can be raised with us. However, there is simply no basis for termination. Instead, the continuing failure of Mr. Silvers to meet his obligations under paragraph 2 of the Settlement Agreement, which has been the subject of prior correspondence, is a breach that he needs to be cured immediately.

Mr. Silvers is obliged to honor the License Agreement and the Settlement Agreement. We hereby demand receipt of written notice by Noon on Monday, May 2, 2005 that the notice of termination has been withdrawn and that Mr. Silvers agrees to abide by his contractual agreements. We also demand written assurance that Mr. Silvers will make no efforts to interfere in any manner with the business of Stelor. Furthermore, Mr. Silvers needs to agree to the submission to the federal court of a consent decree confirming the enforceability of the agreements and the rights that have been conveyed to Stelor. Failing receipt of such notice and assurances, Stelor will initiate an action seeking to enforce the agreements through declaratory and injunctive relief.

All rights and remedies are reserved. Govern yourselves accordingly.

Sincerely,

Daniel Blonsky

Re: Stelor Productions, Inc. v. Steven A. Silvers

Dear Dan:

This is in response to your letter of April 29, 2005. My client is not interested in Stelor's offer of late compliance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement or its obligations under the License Agreement. Mr. Silvers has terminated the License and intends to go in a different direction to develop his characters and intellectual property. We expect Stelor to honor its obligations under the termination provisions of the License Agreement.

Sincerely,

Gail A. McQuilkin
