JOINT MOTION FOR AN ADDITIONAL EXTENSION OF TIME FOR DEFENDANT TO ANSWER OR OTHERWISE RESPOND TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

Defendant, Google, Inc. ("Google"), by and through its attorneys, and Plaintiff, One Number Corporation ("One Number") , by and through its attorneys, jointly move to extend the date for Google to Answer or otherwise respond to the Complaint by July 23, 2010.

1. Google's Answer or other response to One Number's Complaint is currently due on Thursday, July 9, 2010, which time has not yet expired.

2. The parties met on May 25, 2010 and discussed One Number's claims against Google and Google's defenses and responses to those claims. The discussion was productive. Accordingly, the parties jointly moved for an extension of time to June 25, 2010, for Google to answer or otherwise respond to One Number's Complaint, which was granted by this Court. The parties then scheduled a second meeting on June 24, 2010 to discuss their respective positions and determine whether this case can be resolved at an early stage. In order that the June 24 meeting could be productive and permit the parties to adequately consider whether this case may be resolved, the parties respectfully requested that the date for Google to answer or otherwise respond to One Number's Complaint be extended by an additional two weeks, to and including July 9, 2010, which was granted by the Court.

3. Since the June 24, 2010 meeting, the parties have exchanged offers and counter-offers in an attempt to resolve this litigation. An offer (including newly proposed alternative options to resolve the litigation) is currently on the table and being considered. However, in order to adequately consider that offer and its options, the parties reasonably need additional time before the deadline to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint expires. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request an additional extension of two weeks to July 23, 2010, for Google to answer or otherwise respond to One Number's complaint. The parties believe that this additional extension will permit them to determine whether the case may be resolved at this time, without the need for litigation.

4. This motion is a joint motion by both parties and is not made for purposes of delay.

5. A proposed order is enclosed.

WHEREFORE, the parties respectfully request that the Court grant Google an additional two weeks, to and including July 23, 2010, for Google to answer or otherwise respond to One Number's Complaint.
