X. IDENTITY CHRISTIANITY

CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST CHRISTIAN (Aryan Nations)

A. BELIEF

The Church of Jesus Christ Christian, Aryan Nations began with a congregation founded in California by Wesley A. Swift in 1946. Swift was a prominent voice in the pro-white Christian and anti-Marxist Jewish perspective. Following Swift's death in 1970, Richard G. Butler moved to Hayden Lake, Idaho and began an independent branch of the church in 1973. In the 1980s Butler became associated with factions of the Ku Klux Klan and the American Nazi movement.

The Church of Jesus Christ Christian, Aryan Nations describes its beliefs as "identity Christianity", following the Christian-Israel identity message. They believe that modern Anglo-Saxons, Teutonic, Scandinavian, Celtic, Basque, Slavic, Lombard, and kindred peoples are the physical descendants of the ancient (12) tribes of Israel. As such, they consider themselves heirs to the promises of the Bible which refer to Israel as a whole. The church is adamantly pro-white, teaching that the Bible is the family history of the white race.

2. HOLY DAYS

No information.

3. WORSHIP

The church meets on Sundays for worship. Singing, prayer and preaching are included. Offerings are not a part of the worship service, and are given only on a free-will basis. Prayer is offered with an 'open-hand salute' while standing.

4. AUTHORITATIVE TEXT

The Bible (authorized King James Version of 1611).

5. DIET

Members adhere to a non-pork diet, as prescribed in Leviticus and Deuteronomy.

6. ACCREDITED REPRESENTATIVE

The Church is led by ordained pastors. Assistant Pastors or Lay Pastors may also be recognized and participate in worship leadership.
