I am doing mentoring with the Planned Parenthood program. The book was a tool for me to get into mentoring with their teens. I am a co author for the book so I am still able to tell my story and work alongside any program I choose, as you are. The program is solely me and HAS NO CONNECTION WITH LV. I will still continue to work hard and do what I have always done, whether a part of LV or not. R & H still belongs to ALL OF US!

Thanks

Rhasha

Got your letter

I am working with this organization on sex abuse and DV. My info was sent from Debra to the Ohio Sexual Abuse Alliance. This has nothing to do with LV and I am solely doing all of the workshops. As I stated before we all have our own talents and are able to use them in anyway. We are all authors of the book. This book belongs to all of us. I am able to work with any program I wish as "Rhasha Hooser", just as either of u are able to work with any organization as "Delina", "Angel" or "LV".

Thanks for your time.

Rhasha

Thank you for your email to our agency which was forwarded to me. Congratulations on your book; I know that is a challenging undertaking to produce.

Our office is very much focused on administrative/policy functions; my two suggestions for getting your book to reach survivors and the community would be if you could forward information that we could pass on to the local service providers with whom we work, and to suggest that you might contact the statewide sexual assault coalition "Ohio Alliance to End Sexual Violence" – found at www.oaesv.org – and meet with them.

If there are other ways I can be of support please let me know. – Debra

Good Evening,

Got your letter. I am working with Cindy at the YWCA in Evansville, IN. The shelter I went to. The work I am doing there has nothing to do with LV. She got her book shortly after we began selling them. She is the contact ANGEL was supposed to contact and we were supposed to do the DV seminar. I did it in October for DV month.

Anything I now do is a part of Rhasha Hoosier not LV. I do not have to have your permission to do so. BUT if I was in anyway using LV I would have to. Revealing & Healing, however belongs to all of us.

Thanks for your time.

Good Afternoon,

Hope all is well with you. I am touching base with you on domestic violence month. Do you have anything planned? I am trying to see if there is anything I can do to add to your programs or events. I am working now so let me know dates that you have things going on, or you would want me to come.

Thanks for your time. The kids are so excited to see you one day.
