The court, having read and reviewed the Plaintiffs' motion, their brief in support, and their proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now finds the Plaintiffs' motion for default judgment and for a permanent injunction (Docket # 9) should be GRANTED.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that judgment of default is hereby entered against Apex in the amount of $34,377.45,<sup>1</sup> plus attorney fees and costs in the sum of $1,610.00, as authorized and mandated by Section 502(g)(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2). IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Apex is hereby PERMANENTLY ENJOINED from failing and/or refusing to make timely payment of monies due the Funds on behalf of all of Apex's employees for whom contributions are required under the collective bargaining agreement noted above. All future contributions will be paid on or before their due date on the basis specified in any collective bargaining agreement between LIUNA, Indiana State Council, and Apex.

SO ORDERED this 12th day of December 2013.

RICHARD L. YOUNG, CHIEF JUDGE
United States District Court
Southern District of Indiana

---

<sup>1</sup> This amount is representative of unpaid contributions for the months of June through October 2013. (Affidavit of Timothy Patrick ¶ 3). To the extent Apex failed to make contributions for the months of November and December, it shall be liable to the Funds for those amounts as well.
