

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA
EASTERN DIVISION

MELISSA REINHARDT,

Plaintiff,

vs.

NANCY A. BERRYHILL, Acting
Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

No. 16-CV-1030-LRR

ORDER

The matter before the court is United States Chief Magistrate Judge C.J. Williams’s Report and Recommendation (docket no. 20). The Report and Recommendation recommends that the court affirm the final decision of Defendant Commissioner of Social Security (“Commissioner”) denying Plaintiff Melissa Reinhardt’s application for Title XVI disability benefits.

On July 29, 2016, Reinhardt filed a Complaint (docket no. 4) requesting judicial review of the Commissioner’s decision to deny her application for disability benefits. On October 3, 2016, the Commissioner filed an Answer (docket no. 9). The matter was briefed and referred to Judge Williams on February 13, 2017 for issuance of a report and recommendation pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B). See Plaintiff’s Brief (docket no. 15); Defendant’s Brief (docket no. 17); Plaintiff’s Reply Brief (docket no. 18). On March 20, 2017, Judge Williams issued the Report and Recommendation. In the Report and Recommendation, Judge Williams advised the parties that they “must file objections to this Report and Recommendation within fourteen (14) days of the service of a copy of this Report and Recommendation, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b).” Report and Recommendation at 17. Neither party has filed objections to the Report and Recommendation, and the time for doing so has passed.

Pursuant to statute, this court's standard of review for a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation is as follows:

A judge of the court shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified proposed findings or recommendations to which objection is made. A judge of the court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge.

28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Similarly, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(b) provides for de novo review any portion of a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation on dispositive motions to which objections are made. Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(3). The Eighth Circuit has held that it is reversible error for a district court to fail to conduct a de novo review of a magistrate judge's Report and Recommendation when such review is required. See, e.g., United States v. Lothridge, 324 F.3d 599, 600 (8th Cir. 2003). The court reviews the unobjected-to portions of the proposed findings or recommendations for plain error. See United States v. Rodriguez, 484 F.3d 1006, 1010-11 (8th Cir. 2007) (noting that, where a party does not file objections to a magistrate's report and recommendation, the party waives the right to de novo review and the court will review the decision for plain error).

In this case, no objections have been filed, and it appears to the court upon review of Judge Williams's findings and conclusions that there is no ground to reject or modify them. Therefore, the court ADOPTS Judge Williams's Report and Recommendation (docket no. 20). The final decision of the Commissioner is AFFIRMED. The Complaint (docket no. 4) is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 10th day of April, 2017.

LINDA R. READE, JUDGE
