 - a. The singular of each word shall be construed to include its plural, and vice versa;
 - b. "And" as well as "or" shall be construed both conjunctively as well as disjunctively;
 - c. "Each" shall be construed to include "every," and vice versa;
 - d. "Any" shall be construed to include "all," and vice versa; and
 - e. The present tense shall be construed to include the past tense, and vice versa.

2. If you believe that any of the following requests calls for an assertion of a claim of privilege, answer so much of the request as is not objected to, state that part of each request to which you raise objection and set forth the basis for your claim of privilege with respect to such information you refuse to give.

3. If, for reasons other than a claim of privilege, you refuse to answer any request, please state the grounds upon which the refusal is based with sufficient specificity to permit determination of the propriety of such refusal.

7. Each of the definitions and instructions contained herein shall be fully applicable to each request notwithstanding that a definition or instruction above may, in whole or in part, be reiterated in a particular request and notwithstanding that a particular request may incorporate supplemental instructions or definitions. If, however, you provided any alternate definitions in accordance with Instruction No. 6, indicate whether, and how, any answer to any request would differ if you relied on your alternate definition in responding to that request instead of the definitions provided.
