Re: Sprint Communications Company LP v. Vonage Holdings Corp. and Vonage America, Inc. (Case No. 05-2433-JWL)
Your Ref: SPRI.116441; Our Ref: Y2108-00079

Dear Counsel:

This letter responds to your July 5, 2007 letter requesting further identification of those Sprint privilege log entries that are deficient.

As previously noted, the Court outlined the information required for each privilege log entry in order to be sufficient on pages 10 and 11 of its Memorandum and Order dated May 8, 2007 ("Order"). These requirements, as stated, are:

1. A description of the document (e.g., correspondence, memorandum, attachment), including the number of pages and the date prepared;
2. Identity of the person(s) who prepared the document, identity of the person(s) for whom the document was prepared and to whom the document and copies of the document were directed;
3. Purpose of the preparing document, including
 - a. A showing that the documents were prepared in the course of adversarial litigation or in anticipation of a threat of "real and imminent" litigation;
 - b. A showing that communications within the documents relate to seeking or giving legal advice (as opposed to business or non-legal advice); and
 - c. A showing that the documents do not contain or incorporate non-privileged underlying facts.
4. Basis for withholding discovery of the document (i.e., the specific privilege or protection being asserted); and
5. Any other information necessary to establish the elements of each asserted privilege.

The deficient Sprint privilege log entries are noted on the attached copy of "Plaintiff Sprint Communications Company L.P.'s Third Supplemental Privilege Log." The manner in which each entry is deficient is noted in the column entitled "Deficiencies," referencing by number the required information outlined by the Court in its Order and replicated above.

If we do not receive Sprint's privilege log amended to conform with the requirements for sufficiency outlined in the Court's Order by the close of business on July 16, 2007, Vonage may enlist the Court's assistance in compelling Sprint's production of the same.

If you have further questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us.

Very truly yours,
