Witnesses expected to testify as experts shall be so designated. Witnesses and exhibits disclosed by one party may be called or offered by any other party. Witnesses and exhibits not so disclosed and exchanged as required by the court’s order shall not be permitted to testify or be received in evidence, respectively, except by agreement of counsel or upon order of the court. The parties shall file any objections under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3)(B) no later than August 31, 2015. The court shall deem waived any objection not timely asserted, unless excused by the court for good cause shown.

b. Consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3)(A)(ii), any deposition testimony sought to be offered by a party other than to impeach a testifying witness shall be designated by page and line in a

P. 32(a)(6), together with any objections to designations made by the offering party, shall be filed no later than September 4, 2015. Any objections to the counter-designations shall be filed no later than September 8, 2015. The court will not entertain any objections to deposition testimony unless and until the parties have attempted in good faith to resolve the dispute among themselves either in person or via telephone conference. Where the court must resolve disputes concerning presentation of deposition testimony at trial, the party seeking to offer the deposition testimony shall deliver a copy of the deposition at issue to the trial judge no later September 10, 2015. On this copy, those portions of any deposition which is intended to be presented at trial other than for impeachment on cross examination shall be marked by brackets in the margins with different colored highlighting. Red highlighting shall be used to identify the testimony that plaintiff has designated, blue highlighting shall be used by defendant and green highlighting shall be used to identify the objections to any designated testimony. The plaintiff shall write his objections and responses to defendant's objections in the margins of the transcript in black ink, the defendant shall write its objections and responses to plaintiff's objections in the margins in blue ink.

c. Motions in limine shall be filed by September 2, 2015 and responses thereto shall be filed on or before September 4, 2015. Any replies shall be filed by September 8, 2015. The court will notify the parties of when a limine conference will be held as the trial date approaches.

d. The parties shall submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law no later than September 9, 2015. The proposed findings of fact should be concise and limited to those facts that are relevant and material to the ultimate proposed conclusions of law.
