WESTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
AT OWENSBORO

MICHAEL DELON GATES

PLAINTIFF

v.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 4:18-CV-P188-JHM

HOPKINS COUNTY JAIL MEDICAL STAFF et al.

DEFENDANTS

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Plaintiff Michael Delon Gates filed a pro se prisoner complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (DN 1). Upon filing the instant action, he assumed the responsibility of keeping the Court advised of his current address and to actively litigate his claims. See LR 5.2(e) (“All pro se litigants must provide written notice of a change of residential address . . . to the Clerk and to the opposing party or the opposing party’s counsel. Failure to notify the Clerk of an address change may result in the dismissal of the litigant’s case or other appropriate sanctions.”).

On June 4, 2019, an Order sent to Plaintiff at the Jefferson County Detention Center was returned to the Court by the United States Postal Service with the envelope marked “Return to Sender, Attempted-Not Known, Unable To Forward” and “Return to Sender, Inmate Not in Custody” (DN 11). Plaintiff apparently is no longer housed at his address of record, and he has not advised the Court of a subsequent change of address. Therefore, neither notices from this Court nor filings by Defendants in this action can be served on Plaintiff.

Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure authorizes the involuntary dismissal of an action if a plaintiff fails to prosecute or to comply with an order of the court. See Jourdan v. Jabe, 951 F.2d 108, 109 (6th Cir. 1991) (“Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) recognizes the power of the district court to enter a sua sponte order of dismissal.”). Although federal courts afford pro se litigants some leniency on matters that require legal sophistication, such as formal pleading rules, the same policy does not support leniency from court deadlines and other procedures readily understood by laypersons, particularly where there is a pattern of delay or failure to pursue a case. Id. at 110. “Further, the United States Supreme Court has recognized that courts have an inherent power to manage their own affairs and may dismiss a case sua sponte for lack of prosecution.” Lyons-Bey v. Pennell, 93 F. App’x 732, 733 (6th Cir. 2004) (citing Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 630-31 (1962)).

Because Plaintiff has failed to comply with this Court’s Local Rules by failing to provide written notice of a change of address, the Court concludes that this case must be dismissed for lack of prosecution. See, e.g., White v. City of Grand Rapids, 34 F. App’x 210, 211 (6th Cir. 2002) (“[Plaintiff’s] complaint was subject to dismissal for want of prosecution because he failed to keep the district court apprised of his current address.”).

The Court will enter a separate Order of dismissal consistent with this Memorandum Opinion.
