

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

RONALD WESLEY, JR.

CIVIL ACTION

VERSUS

NO. 06-2585

RICHARD STALLER, ET AL.

SECTION "J"(1)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter was referred to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge to conduct a hearing, including an Evidentiary Hearing, if necessary, and to submit proposed findings and recommendations for disposition pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and (c), § 1915e(2), and § 1915A, and as applicable, Title 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(c)(1) and(2). Upon review of the entire record, the Court has determined that this matter can be disposed of without an Evidentiary Hearing.

I. Factual Summary

Plaintiff, Ronald Wesley, Jr. ("Wesley"), is confined in the Concordia Parish Correctional Center in Ferriday, Louisiana. Plaintiff submitted this pro se and *in forma pauperis*¹ civil rights complaint pursuant to Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983, against that facility and others, including Richard Stalder, Iberia Parish Jail, Marksville Correctional Center and Pine Prairie Correctional Center. He complains that he is being denied medical treatment and a proper environment in light of his mental illness. He requests injunctive relief.

¹The Court directed the Clerk by separate Order to file this complaint without prepayment of a filing fee. However, the application for pauper status is deferred to the Western District of Louisiana for determination and collection pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

II. The General Venue Statute

Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 does not contain a specific venue provision. Venue, however, is determined under Title 28 U.S.C. § 1391, also known as the General Venue Statute. See Jones v. Bales, 58 F.R.D. 453 (N.D. Ga. 1972), aff'd, 480 F.2d 805 (5th Cir. 1973). The General Venue Statute at § 1391(b) provides that a civil action wherein jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship may, except as otherwise provided by law, be brought only in a judicial district where (1) any defendant resides, if all defendants reside in the same State, (2) a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or (3) any defendant may be found, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought.

Pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a) and § 1404(a), a district in which venue is wrong may transfer a case to another district or division in which venue is proper, if such transfer is in the interest of justice. Balawajder v. Scott, 160 F.3d 1066, 1067 (5th Cir. 1999). Having reviewed the record, the Court finds that venue in the Eastern District of Louisiana is improper.

III. Proper Venue

Wesley's primary complaint concerns the medical care he is currently receiving and the prison conditions currently existing with regard to his mental illness. Wesley is presently incarcerated in the Concordia Parish Correctional Center. The prison is located in Ferriday, Louisiana, in Concordia Parish, which is within the territory of the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana. Title 28 U.S.C. § 98 (c). Wesley does not allege any legal or factual basis to maintain venue in the Eastern District of Louisiana. Therefore, the Court finds that it is in the interest of justice and fairness to the parties that this civil action be transferred to the Western District of Louisiana for further consideration.²

IV. Recommendation

It is therefore RECOMMENDED that the captioned matter be TRANSFERRED to the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana.

A party's failure to file written objections to the proposed findings, conclusions, and recommendation in a magistrate judge's report and recommendation within ten (10) days after being served with a copy shall bar that party, except upon grounds of plain error, from attacking on appeal the unobjected-to proposed factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the district court, provided that the party has been served with notice that such consequences will result from a failure to object. Douglass v. United Services Automobile Association, 79 F.3d 1415, 1430 (5th Cir. 1996).
