SECTION "F"

ORDER AND REASONS

Before the Court is the plaintiff's request for oral argument on the her motion for new trial. The request is DENIED for the following reasons. It is the Court's policy to grant oral argument on motions if one of the following factors is present:

3. The motion or opposition papers argue for a change in existing law.
4. The motion or opposition papers implicate a constitutional issue.
5. The case itself is of widespread community interest.

Because the motion for new trial does not involve any of the above factors, IT IS ORDERED: that the request for oral argument
