

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

JAMES VEAL

CIVIL ACTION

VERSUS

NO: 14-762

TIM KEITH, WARDEN

SECTION: R(2)

ORDER AND REASONS

Before the Court is James Veal's petition for federal habeas corpus relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The Magistrate Judge recommends that Veal's petition be dismissed with prejudice. The Court, having reviewed de novo the petition, the record, the applicable law, the Magistrate's Report and Recommendation ("R&R"), and the petitioner's objections thereto, hereby approves the R&R and adopts it as its opinion.

In his objections, Veal does not challenge the precedent cited by the Magistrate Judge or raise any arguments disputing the Magistrate Judge's analysis. Instead, he simply reiterates allegations set forth in his petition.<sup>1</sup> The Magistrate Judge adequately addressed each of these allegations, and the Court need not reiterate his analysis.<sup>2</sup>

Rule 11(a) of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Proceedings provides that "[t]he district court must issue or deny a certificate of appealability when it enters a final order adverse to the applicant." A court may only issue a certificate of appealability if the petitioner makes "a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right." 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). The "controlling standard" for a certificate of appealability requires the petitioner to show "that reasonable jurists could debate whether (or, for that matter, agree that) the petition should have been resolved in a different manner or that the issues presented [are] adequate to deserve encouragement to proceed further." Miller-El v. Cockrell, 537 U.S. 322, 336 (2003) (quoting Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000)) (quotation marks removed).

The Court concludes that Veal's petition fails to satisfy this standard. Accordingly, the Court will not issue a certificate of appealability.

For the foregoing reasons, the Court DENIES Veal's petition for habeas corpus and DENIES a certificate of appealability.
