Plaintiff

CIVIL ACTION

VERSUS

NO. 15-3463

CHEVROLET CUSTOMER
ASSISTANCE CENTER, Defendant

SECTION: "E" (3)

ORDER

On August 13, 2015, Plaintiff Stanley Jordan filed the present action in this Court against Defendant, the Chevrolet Customer Assistance Center.¹ In sum, Jordan sues the Chevrolet Customer Assistance Center for problems he has allegedly experienced with a number of his vehicles.

Because the Court has an obligation, at all stages of the litigation, to examine the basis upon which federal subject matter jurisdiction rests, Magistrate Judge Knowles issued a Report and Recommendations examining whether the Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Jordan's Complaint.² Judge Knowles concluded, on November 3, 2015, that "there is no basis for federal jurisdiction in this proceeding."³ Jordan was ordered to submit any objections he may have to the Report and Recommendations by November 17, 2015. Petitioner then filed two documents: (1) a motion for leave to file an amended complaint;⁴ and (2) an Objection to the Report and Recommendations.⁵

The Court has reviewed both the motion for leave and the objection filed by Jordan, and has treated both documents as objections to the Report and Recommendations issued by Judge Knowles. After reviewing Jordan's pleadings and the arguments stated therein, the Court concludes that Jordan has altogether failed to identify a proper basis for federal subject matter jurisdiction over his Complaint. For that reason, the Court hereby approves the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendations and adopts it as its opinion.

Accordingly;

IT IS ORDERED that Jordan's Complaint be and hereby is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction and/or improper venue.

New Orleans, Louisiana, this 17th day of November, 2015.
