FREDRICK WILSON

CIVIL ACTION

VERSUS

NO. 09-0336

EAST BATON ROUGE PARISH PRISON, ET AL.

SECTION "S"(1)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter was referred to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge to conduct a hearing, including an Evidentiary Hearing, if necessary, and to submit proposed findings and recommendations for disposition pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and (c), § 1915e(2), and § 1915A, and as applicable, Title 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(c)(1) and(2). Upon review of the entire record, the Court has determined that this matter can be disposed of without an Evidentiary Hearing.

I. Factual Summary

Plaintiff, Fredrick Wilson, is currently incarcerated in the David Wade Correctional Center/Forcht-Wade in Keithville, Louisiana. Plaintiff submitted this pro se and *in forma pauperis*¹ civil rights complaint pursuant to Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983, against the East Baton Rouge Parish Prison and Warden Grimes, seeking monetary compensation for injuries he sustained in a slip and fall incident while incarcerated in the facility. (Rec. Doc. No. 1, p. 5). He seeks monetary compensation.

II. The General Venue Statute

Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 does not contain a specific venue provision. Venue, however, is determined under Title 28 U.S.C. § 1391, also known as the general venue statute. See Jones v. Bales, 58 F.R.D. 453 (N.D. Ga. 1972), aff'd, 480 F.2d 805 (5th Cir. 1973). The general venue statute at § 1391(b) provides that a civil action wherein jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship may, except as otherwise provided by law, be brought only in a judicial district where (1) any defendant resides, if all defendants reside in the same State, (2) a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or (3) any defendant may be found, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought.

Pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a) and § 1404(a), a district in which venue is wrong may transfer a case to another district or division in which venue is proper, if such transfer is in the interest of justice. Balawajder v. Scott, 160 F.3d 1066, 1067 (5th Cir. 1999). Having reviewed the record, the Court finds that venue in the Eastern District of Louisiana is improper.

III. Proper Venue

Plaintiff alleges a cause of action against defendants based on events that occurred during his period of incarceration in the East Baton Rouge Parish Prison. The East Baton Rouge Parish Prison is located in Scotlandville, Louisiana, in East Baton Rouge Parish, which is within the territory of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana. 28 U.S.C. § 98(b). Therefore, the Court finds that it is in the interest of justice and fairness to the parties that this civil action be transferred to the Middle District of Louisiana for further consideration.

IV. Recommendation

It is therefore RECOMMENDED that the captioned matter be TRANSFERRED to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana.

A party's failure to file written objections to the proposed findings, conclusions, and recommendation in a magistrate judge's report and recommendation within ten (10) days after being served with a copy shall bar that party, except upon grounds of plain error, from attacking on appeal the unobjected-to proposed factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the district court, provided that the party has been served with notice that such consequences will result from a failure to object. Douglass v. United Services Automobile Association, 79 F.3d 1415, 1430 (5th Cir. 1996).
