ORDER REQUIRING SUBMISSION ON JURISDICTIONAL AMOUNT

This case was removed from a local state court based on the defendant’s allegation that the matter in controversy exceeds $75,000 and that this court therefore has diversity jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §1332. Defendant’s allegation as to the amount in controversy is unsupported by sufficient specific facts.

A removing defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000 by either (1) demonstrating that it is facially apparent that the claims are likely above $75,000 or (2) setting forth the specific facts in controversy that support a finding of the jurisdictional amount. Simon v. WalMart Stores, 193 F.3d 848 (5th Cir. 1999); Luckett v. Delta Airlines, Inc., 171 F.3d 295 (5th Cir. 1999).

In accordance with state law,<sup>1</sup> in her original complaint, plaintiff has not specified the numerical value of her damage claim, and the jurisdictional amount is not otherwise “facially apparent” from the original complaint. Furthermore, the defendant has failed to set forth sufficient specific facts to establish jurisdiction.<sup>2</sup>

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that or on before October 28, 2009, the defendant shall file a memorandum setting forth specific facts in controversy which support a finding that the jurisdictional amount exists. Supporting documentation and/or affidavits are advisable.

Signed this 7th day of October, 2009, at Lafayette, Louisiana.
