JOINT MOTION FOR STATUS CONFERENCE

Plaintiff Firefly Digital, Inc. (“Firefly”) and Defendant Google Inc. (“Google”) jointly request a Status Conference via telephone with the Court in the above-captioned case.

Due to a three-week recovery time for Firefly’s trial attorney’s recently scheduled surgery, counsel for Firefly wish to seek a seven-week continuance of the discovery deadline set out in the April 7, 2010 Scheduling Order (Doc. 16). Counsel for Google do not oppose Firefly’s requested seven-week extension to the discovery deadline, but they believe it is necessary to also push back the dispositive motion deadline and trial setting by comparable periods to give the parties and the Court adequate time to brief and decide dispositive motions. Counsel for Firefly do not object to continuing these additional deadlines and dates if the Court is inclined to grant such request.

Therefore, we respectfully request a Status Conference via telephone at the Court’s earliest convenience to determine whether the Court will allow continuance of any or all of these deadlines and dates set out in the April 7, 2010 Scheduling Order.

Respectfully Submitted:

Dated: August 17, 2010
