RESPONDS*PICKETING WILL CONTINUE: ANYONE FILING FRIVOL
LITIGATION AGAINST WBC WILL BE NAMED IN A LAWSUIT
VIOLATIONS OF CIVIL RIGHTS INCLUDING THEIR ATTORNEYS AND ANY MEMBERS OF THE US MILITARY INVOLVED

The filing of a frivolous lawsuit seeking to stop the picketing changes nothing. We will boldly stay on message: God hates USA and America is doomed.

These former JAG officers are acting unethically, abusing the judicial system to pursue their personal agenda, which is to silence the military and silence anyone who disagrees. It is foolish for them to abuse the legal process, while making irresponsible empty promises that they will by virtue of that litigation stop us. No court or army power can stop the servants of God from preaching on the streets. What they will accomplish is this:

- 1) They will bring more attention to the military, which is: God is killing these soldiers for the USA and America.
- 2) They will make the Lord their God more prominent with this nation, and bring more wrath and punishment on this country.

If media reports are true, these former JAG attorneys are soliciting others to join them in more lawsuits. Anyone who joins the court system in this fashion will be included in counter claims and separate lawsuits by WBC for conspiracy to violate civil rights and violation of civil rights. In the lawsuit, we will use discovery to uncover the details of the involvement of anyone in the US military, from the Pentagon, or elsewhere, and all those persons and organizations will be joined as co-defendants in our legal action, including Mr. Snyder and his attorneys.

Everyone knows this picketing is protected, and it is not a criminal and civil law to conspire to misuse the court system to stop it. Thousands of people appear outside funerals and military services to take a position on how God is dealing with America and why the soldiers are dying. You hate our view on that issue, but you can't stop it. Anyone who tries will be held accountable in court and courtroom.

Mr. Snyder appeared on a New York radio program to "defend member of WBC, to argue that his son did not die for the America. His grief didn't stop him from becoming a public figure spokesperson. We told him then that he should stop blaspheming God and obey Him. Instead he's defying God further by misusing the legal system, searching for peace he won't find. There is no peace when God curses a nation by killing its young people in battle. Snyder continues to defy God, God will deal directly with him and that will make his dead son the least of his problems.

Filing frivolous lawsuits against WBC will do nothing to stop the carnage on the battle field at God's hand. Even if you could, by using legal handed litigation stunts, silence us – which you can NOT – it will not bring back one dead soldier, including Mr. Snyder's son. The carnage will keep coming home in pieces in body bags. The soldiers will keep dying.

So long as the families, military, media, veterans groups and the general community-at-large, use funerals or memorial services for fallen soldiers as platforms for political patriotic pep rallies, we will continue to picket those pep rallies. If they put the flags down and go home, we'll go home. Not before then.

We will continue to deliver a message to this nation: America has sinned away your last day of grace; America is doomed; God is your enemy. God is killing these soldiers on the battle field for the sins of America, not the least of which is embracing homosexuality, as well as rampant fornication, adultery, abortion, other violence, and idolatry. Nothing is going to bring Mr. Snyder peace unless and until he repents and has peace with the Lord his God, by obeying.
