PLAINTIFF'S ANSWERS TO DEFENDANT PHELPS-ROPER'S INTERROGATORIES 7 AND 29

7. Regarding the Web site, www.matthewsnyder.org, why was it established; who set it up; who maintains it; who pays to maintain it; and who bought the domain name?

Answer: The Website was established as a vehicle by which Plaintiff Al Snyder could inform the public of the actions of the defendants. Through this Website Plaintiff also seeks donations to help offset the legal expenses of bringing the suit.

Albert Snyder bought the domain name. The Website was set up with the help of Plaintiff's counsel through the registrar, nexcess.net. It is paid for by Mr. Snyder and is maintained by Plaintiff's counsel.

How much money have you received through donations through www.matthewsnyder.org, to whom were the checks and money orders made out, or if paid by credit card to whom were the payments made, and have you reported those funds as income and if so when and how?

Answer: Donations have been received through the service as identified on the Website as Click and Pledge, whereby the donations have been received in the form of periodic checks payable to Albert Snyder Escrow. In addition, cash donations have been received and individual checks have been received payable to the Al Snyder Fund. These funds have not been reported as income. To date, the Al Snyder Fund has received $10,072.54.
