RE: Redding v. Justia, Inc. et al
Civil No. 1:11-cv-00674-CCB

Dear Mr. Redding:

The Defendants, Cynthia McCoy and Justin Shelton filed a motion to dismiss on 8/16/11 and Defendant Justia, Inc. filed a motion to dismiss on 8/19/11. If these motions are granted, it could result in the dismissal of your case or the entry of judgment against you.

You have the right to file a response to this motion within seventeen (17) days from the date of this letter. Your response should respond to and explain the facts or matters stated in the motion, but please note that Local Rule 105.3 limits the length of a memorandum to 50 pages, excluding affidavits, exhibits, and attachments. If appropriate, your response may include affidavits (statements made under oath); declarations (statements made subject to the penalty of perjury under 28 U.S.C. § 1746); or other materials contesting the affidavits, declarations, or records filed by the defendant(s).

You must send a copy of all materials filed in your response to all other parties or, if represented, to their attorneys. Please include a certificate of service with the response you file with this Court. Your certificate of service should state that you mailed a copy of your response to them, how you mailed the copy, and when you mailed the copy.

If you do not file a timely written response, the Court may dismiss the case or enter judgment against you without further notice. For your reference, a copy of Federal Civil Rules 12 and 56, which govern a motion to dismiss or summary judgment, are attached to this letter.

Sincerely,

By: D. Skinner
