

Mayor Meehan, the Council, and the Town titled "Motion to Reopen/Reconsider & Seek Declaratory Judgment in Mark Chase v. Town of Ocean City."¹ ECF No. 1. On November 5, 2015, the Court issued an Order directing Plaintiffs to "submit completed summons to the Clerk." ECF No. 2. On November 12, 2015, the Clerk issued summonses as to the Council, Mayor Meehan, and the Town. ECF No. 4. The summonses were returned executed on November 19, 2015. ECF No. 5. On November 24, 2015, Plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint adding as Defendants the City Solicitor Guy R. Ayres III (Solicitor Ayres) and "John Does-Revealed in Depositions" as Defendants. ECF No. 6.

On December 9, 2015, Defendants Mayor Meehan, the Council, and the Town filed a Motion to Dismiss the un-amended Complaint. ECF No. 7. It is unclear why this motion attacked the un-amended Complaint as it was filed after the Amended Complaint.² On December 15, 2015, these Defendants filed a second Motion to Dismiss, attacking the Amended Complaint pursuant to Rules 12(b)(1), 12(b)(5), and 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. ECF No. 10. Solicitor Ayres and Mayor Meehan also filed separate motions to dismiss, each raising challenges under Rule 12(b)(5) and Rule 12(b)(6). ECF Nos. 14 and 22.³

¹ Plaintiffs originally attempted to file this pleading in Chase v. Town of Ocean City, Case No. ELH-11-1771. Judge Ellen Hollander returned the pleading because Plaintiffs were not parties to Chase.

² ECF No. 7 is now moot.

A. 12(b)(1) Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction

"The district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States." 28 U.S.C. § 1331. Mayor Meehan, the Council, and the Town claim "Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint fails to set forth factual allegations that bring their claim within the subject matter jurisdiction of this Court." ECF No. 10-1 at 3. Defendants concede, however, that the Amended Complaint "state[s] that the reason for Plaintiffs' bringing the instant lawsuit was their desire to protect the rights guaranteed them by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution." ECF No. 10-1 at 3. The Court disagrees with Defendants that "the entire complaint is void of any substantive discussion of the First Amendment rights violated by Defendants." Id. Plaintiffs may have included superfluous allegations in the Amended Complaint,⁴ but, as stated above, they have implicated a First Amendment claim, challenging provisions of Ocean City's 2015-11 Town Ordinance, Section 62, enacted on

³ It is somewhat unclear why duplicative motions were filed by Mayor Meehan.

⁴ When dealing with a pro se party, "the longstanding practice is to construe pro se pleadings liberally." Slade v. Hampton Roads Reg'l Jail, 407 F.3d 243, 252 (4th Cir. 2005).

June 15, 2015. This Ordinance amended Chapter 62 of the Code of Ocean City, which was the section of the code previously challenged in Chase v. Town of Ocean City, ELH-11-1771.⁵ In reading the Amended Complaint as a whole, it is clear that Plaintiffs' action arises under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, which can be enforced against municipalities through the Fourteenth Amendment's Due Process Clause. Thus, the Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this case.

B. 12(b)(5) Insufficient Service of Process

Under Rule 12(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a defendant may move to dismiss for insufficient service of process. If service is contested, the "plaintiff bears the burden of establishing the validity of service pursuant to Rule 4." O'Meara v. Waters, 464 F. Supp. 2d 474, 476 (D. Md. 2006). Even so, insufficient service of process does not always necessitate dismissal. See, e.g., Pugh v. E.E.O.C., DKC-13-02862, 2014 WL 2964415, at *3 (D. Md. June 30, 2014). Under Rule 4(j)(2), process can be served on a local government by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to its chief executive officer, or by serving the local government in compliance with the law of the state where the federal court is located.⁶ Under Maryland law, [s]ervice is made on a county, municipal corporation, bicounty or multicounty agency, public authority, special taxing district, or other political subdivision or unit of a political subdivision of the State by serving the resident agent designated by the local entity. If the local entity has no resident agent or if a good faith effort to serve the resident agent has failed, service may be made by serving the chief executive or presiding officer or, if none, by serving any member of the governing body.

⁵ In Chase v. Town of Ocean City, Judge Hollander issued a preliminary injunction, which prevented the enforcement of certain provisions of Section 62 of the Code of Ocean City. 825 F. Supp. 2d 599, 631-632 (2011).

Md. Rule 2-124(1). In addition, process may be served on an individual by handing a summons and complaint to the individual personally, by leaving a summons and complaint at the individual's house or other place of abode, by serving the individual's authorized agent, or by serving the individual in compliance with the law of the state where the federal court is located. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(e). Under Maryland law, "[s]ervice is made upon an individual by serving the individual or an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process for the individual." Md. Rule 2-124(b).

Defendants "are unsure if Plaintiffs' individual naming of all City Councilmembers and Mayor Meehan [is] an attempt to name them as parties to the lawsuit" and "note that these individuals have not been formally named as additional Defendants in this case." ECF No. 10-1 at 5 n.2. Regardless of whether some ⁶ Under Rule 4(c)(2), any person who is at least 18 years old and not a party may serve a summons and complaint.

Defendants are properly categorized as individuals or local government entities, Mayor Meehan, the Council, the Town, and Solicitor Ayres⁷ contest service. Plaintiffs attempted to effectuate service on these Defendants by serving Diane Chavis, Clerk of the Town of Ocean City, with four copies of the Amended Complaint. ECF No. 9 at 1; ECF No. 5. To the extent Defendants in this case are local government entities, Plaintiffs have not served the chief executive officer⁸ or the resident agent of those Defendants. See ECF No. 10-2 (listing City Solicitor Guy R. Ayres III as the current resident agent of Mayor Meehan and the Council). To the extent Defendants in this case are "individuals," Plaintiffs have not served any named party or an agent of a named party. Plaintiffs failed to comply with federal law and Maryland law for effecting service, thus, service was insufficient.

Despite insufficient service, Defendants received actual notice because they filed motions to dismiss alleging Plaintiffs failed to state a claim under Rule 12(b)(6). See, e.g., DeCosta

⁷ Solicitor Ayres asserts that service was improper under Rule 12(b)(4), ECF No. 14-1 at 6, however, the Solicitor's motion does not describe insufficient process but rather insufficient service of process under Rule 12(b)(5). The Court will consider the Solicitor's assertion under Rule 12(b)(5).

⁸ Defendants claim and Plaintiffs do not dispute that the chief executive officer of Ocean City is the person who performs the duties of treasurer, not the city clerk. ECF No. 10-1 at 4 n.1.

v. U.S. Bancorp, Civil No. DKC-10-0301, 2010 WL 3824224, at *2 (D. Md. Sept. 27, 2010) (improperly served defendant received actual notice "as evidenced by [its] motion to dismiss the complaint [for failure to state a claim]"). "When the process gives the defendant actual notice of the pendency of the action, the rules, in general, are entitled to a liberal construction." Armco, Inc. v. Penrod-Stauffer Bldg. Sys., Inc., 733 F.2d 1087, 1089 (4th Cir. 1984). Given Defendants participation in this suit and Plaintiffs pro se status, dismissal would be inappropriate. While pending motions to dismiss for insufficient service will be denied, Plaintiffs may not ignore the rules for effecting service, and therefore, service on Defendants will be quashed. See id. ("But the rules are there to be followed, and plain requirements for the means of effecting service of process may not be ignored."); see also Vorhees v. Fischer & Krecke, 697 F.2d 574, 576 (4th Cir. 1983) (finding insufficient service of process does not necessarily warrant dismissal). The Clerk shall re-issue summonses, and the Plaintiffs may attempt to effect service on Defendants in accordance with federal or Maryland law.

C. 12(b)(6) Failure to State a Claim

Because service on Defendants will be quashed, the pending motions to dismiss, ECF Nos. 10, 14, 22, which include requests for dismissal pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), will be denied as moot, without prejudice to renewal if service is properly made.⁹

Although the Court is not proceeding to the merits of Defendants' motions under Rule 12(b)(6), the Court notes that in addition to Plaintiffs' claims under the First Amendment, the Amended Complaint has outlined three counts. ECF No. 6 at 23-28. The Court finds it appropriate to inform Plaintiffs that they may not bring federal criminal charges against Defendants under 18 U.S.C. § 241 or 18 U.S.C. § 242. In addition, to the extent the Court understands Count III as an action to discipline Solicitor Ayres for ethical violations through the suspension of his law license, that claim will likely be dismissed as the Maryland Court of Appeals has "original and complete jurisdiction over attorney discipline proceedings." Attorney Grievance Comm'n of Maryland v. Brown, 44 A.3d 344, 354 (Md. 2012).

For the above-stated reasons, service on Defendants will be quashed. The pending motions to dismiss, ECF Nos. 10, 14, and 22, and the pending Motion for Temporary Injunction, ECF No. 17, will be denied as moot, without prejudice to renewal if service is properly made. A separate order will issue.

⁹ For the same reason, Plaintiffs' Motion for Temporary Injunction, ECF No. 17, will be denied as moot without prejudice to renewal if service is properly made.

/s/

William M. Nickerson
Senior United States District Judge

DATED: March 21, 2016