Linc,

Before you make a decision on Lolita, do you think you should talk with her? Are you going on the word of Say Wing only? Might she have some agenda? Lolita has been one of your best workers, and I hate to see you lose her if there is a possibility this may be a half truth or possibly a misunderstanding. With Say Wing's inability to speak English well, either could be true.

Cinnie,

Just concluded a conversation with Say Wing in which she implicated Lolita Gonzales as participating in the sabotage of Tim's stacks. She says that this is the reason that she doesn't want to work with her. As a result, Lolita's assignment will probably be ended today.
