SCANNED

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR PRINCE GEORGE'S COURSE AND MINE MADE

JENNIFER W. COLE

Plaintiff

Vs.

16938

BANK OF AMERICA, N.A.

Defendant

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER (1970)

The court notes that the plaintiff is self-represented. The plaintiff has the religion presented litigant. The court would, however, strongly advise that the plaintiff seek the services ryland of Procedure and Maryland Rules of Evidence are applicable to all litigants whether they the These rules can be difficult and hard to understand. If the plaintiff has difficulty in finding an attermay, they may refer the Proce George's Bar Association-Lawyer Referral Service at 301-952-1442 or visit the Self Represented Litigas is Round lighted on the second floor of the courthouse, Room M2435.

Likewise, the court notes that there is no service of the bill of complaint on the court time to see of the original papers on the defendant is the formal method of notifying the defendant that at the harmonic of the United States Constitution and the strategy of the process requirements of the United States Constitution and the strategy of the papers or the original papers must be accomplished by a person other than the plaintiff giving the defendant that at the papers or the original papers must be accomplished by a person other than the plaintiff giving the defendant that at the papers or the original papers must be accomplished by a person other than the plaintiff giving the defendant that at the papers or the original papers must be accomplished by a person other than the plaintiff giving the defendant that at the papers or the original papers or the origi

THEREFORE, it is this 28th day of July, 2017 by the Circuit Court of the court of t

ORDERED, that a STATUS HEARING be set on the lember

Leo E. Green, Jr.

Civil Coordinating Judge

Copies mailed by Court to:

Jennifer W. Cole 12601 King Arthur Ct. Glenn Dale, MD 20769

Justine Boyd, Civil Paral gal to the Horable Leo E. Green, Jr.

Date: 7/28/17

ENTE

30

iryland