Subject: RE: FW: Stipulation for a temporary protective order

Linda,

In addition to the information previously provided by e-mail, we have determined that the BLA for CERA was submitted by the U.S. entity, Hoffmann-La Roche Inc. This information is being provided as outside counsels' eyes only pursuant to the stipulation filed by the parties yesterday.

Thanks,
Pat

Pat,

This looks fine. Please provide the information directed to Judge Young's Order, as Leora had indicated would be provided yesterday, to us at your earliest convenience (I believe our report to Judge Young is due this Thursday). Thank you.

Linda

Linda,

I have made one minor addition (in red). If we are now in agreement, please confirm that we may file this with the Court.

Thanks,
Pat

05/22,

Dear Pat,

Thank you for the draft stipulation. I have made a few red-lines to the document. Please review and indicate whether you agree with the changes. I will send to you shortly under separate cover our proposed Protective Order for the DMass matter for all other discovery.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Linda

Subject: Stipulation for a temporary protective order

Dear Rusty,

As you discussed with Leora, attached is a draft stipulation for a temporary protective order. If you agree, we will have Bromberg finalize and handle filing with the Court.

thanks,
Pat
