Dear Mr. Arsenault,

I have attempted to contact you at your office several times in response to your letter to me concerning a deposition transcript taken on Wednesday, April 18, 2007. You have not responded or contacted me and I am now contacting you by letter.

I am noticing you of the following items:

1. I intend to review and sign the transcript.
2. I am again requesting that you schedule an appointment for me to review and sign the transcript within the referenced "time period."
3. If the transcript is lengthy, please schedule several days for that review to take place at your offices as required by your letter.
4. Your officer does not have my permission to sign the transcript in my absence should you fail to make it fully available to me to review and sign.

I can be contacted at 781 583 7117 and at P.O. Box 583, Milton, Massachusetts 02186.

Sincerely,

Christine Marad
