Re: Connectu, Inc. v. Facebook Inc., et al
No. 07-10593-DPW (Consolidated With 04-11923-DPW)

Your Honor:

This firm represents counterdefendants Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss and Divya Narendra in the above-referenced cases.

On October 8, 2009, we filed Counterdefendants' Assented-to Motion For Impoundment.

The purpose of this letter is to advise the Court that the substantive motion referred to in the impoundment motion requests relief from stay only to seek the Court's permission to use certain Facebook documents, that Facebook has previously designated confidential, in aid of an arbitration between the counterdefendants and a third party. Counterdefendants do not otherwise seek relief from stay.

The arbitration is scheduled to begin in New York City on October 26, 2009, so there is some urgency to the underlying motion. Accordingly, our clients respectfully request that the assented-to motion for impoundment be allowed, so that they can file their underlying motion papers promptly.

Thank you.

Respectfully yours,
