Re: Quinn Emanuel Urquhart Oliver & Hedges, LLP v. Winklevoss, et al.
AAA Arb. No. 13 194 Y 995 08

Dear Ms. Thompson:

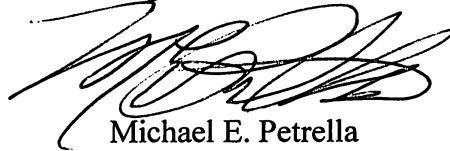

With regard to the recent correspondence with the arbitration panel in the above matter concerning the Parmet subpoenas, the panel has ruled as follows:

CHAIRMAN SILBERBERG: Good morning.
4 This is evidentiary hearing number 3 in the
5 case of Quinn Emanuel versus Winklevoss.
6 The record should reflect that all parties
7 are present with their counsel, as is the 8 Panel.
9 One housekeeping matter before we
10 proceed to take testimony: The Panel is 11 aware of correspondence that was sent by
12 counsel representing Facebook with respect
13 to a request that the most recent subpoena
14 addressed to Facebook be withdrawn. We are 15 also aware of correspondence I believe sent
16 by Mr. Petrella urging that the subpoena not

17 be withdrawn.
18 The Panel has deliberated and
19 determined not to withdraw that subpoena,
20 and the parties can feel free to communicate
21 the Panel's determination as appropriate.

Please advise immediately as to whether you intend to comply with the Panel's subpoena so that we may seek appropriate relief before Justice Lowe, if necessary. However, we urge you to comply voluntarily and thereby avoid needless expenditure of time and resources by both the Court and the parties. We reserve all rights to seek attorney fees, costs, and sanctions in the event that you force judicial intervention.
