You should take another look at our letter and then we should schedule a time to talk.

Sorry. I thought the 6/13 letter was to Alison and not me. I have not sent anything since.

Michael,

I sent you a detailed response to your request. Did you not receive it?

Dear Alison and Neel: In my June 13 letter sent to you by email, I requested that you meet and confer with us yesterday (6/15) or suggest a more convenient time. I did not hear back from you. I write again to request that we meet and confer to discuss our firm's right to gain access to materials designated as confidential under the Protective Order(s) in the MA action. We are available tomorrow morning and any time Monday. If those do not work we remain open to your suggesting a time convenient for you.

Best regards,

Michael Schrag

Dear Tyler and Michael:

I understand that you have asked for Facebook to consent to your gaining access to confidential materials that are subject to the protective order. I represent ConnectU, which is a separate entity from Facebook. To my knowledge, you have not identified from whom you intend to obtain the materials to which you seek access. To the extent that you are seeking to access confidential materials from ConnectU's former counsel, ConnectU objects to any such access. Specifically, ConnectU does not authorize its former counsel to provide said materials and does not consent to your access to same. I am attaching here the letter I sent to ConnectU's former counsel earlier today advising counsel that ConnectU does not consent to any such access.

Best,

Alison Buchanan
