Corporate Overview

People2People Group - The Relationship Experts

With nearly 15 years of experience, The People2People Group is the world's leader in providing relationships services. The companies that make up The People2People Group offer their revenue-enhancing technologies to a wide variety of media, from newspapers and radio to the Internet, wireless and broadband. And, all of our services are fully integrated, making web-to-print and web-to-wireless a reality today.

People2People Group is located in Boston, Massachusetts.
We are a division of Phoenix Media/Communications Group, Inc., a multimedia corporation founded in 1966, which consists of newspaper and magazine publishing divisions, a broadcast media division and a printing/graphic services division.
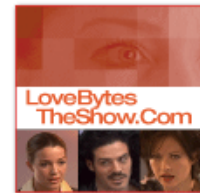

Voice Personals
The original Voice Personals product. A traditional print section, enhanced with industry-leading marketing and promotion and dedicated Client Development Managers. A proven revenue generator and an excellent reader service. You'll find TPI sections in major newspapers throughout North America and Europe.

Wireless Dating
enters the 21st Century and we've developed the technology to make your existing personals section a part of the mobile communications revolution. TPIConnect is an adjunct to your existing personals program, creating a member-based message and match service featuring instantaneous alerts that drive your premium-rate revenues to new heights.

Internet
With over 1.5 million members in 155 countries, People2People.com is the world's premiere online relationship community. A safe and efficient way for today's busy singles to meet, the People2People web site allows members to interact via e-mail, photos, voice greetings and videos. People2People.com is also the leading personals partner for newspaper Web sites, offering a complete co-branding program that features customized logos and client-specific color templates.

Radio and Television
A broadcast-based service using our proprietary matching technology that brings your viewers or listeners together over the airwaves. Since your talent brands the product, AirDate works well in any size market and most formats. A proven source of non-traditional revenue, AirDate requires no capital investment and offers your station a great opportunity for sponsorship.

Interactive Broadband
A new offering from The People2People Group, Lovebytes is a digital, interactive sitcom about an Internet dating service that can actually get you a date. Recently seen at The Sundance Film Festival, the show stars Claudia Christian, Gary Coleman, Wil Wheaton, Serenity, and others. Viewers can meet
