Re: Lindsay Blankmeyer (DOB 6/22/89)

Dear Dean Grant:

Lindsay Blankmeyer is a patient under my care for TMS (Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation), a treatment for severe depression. This is a daily treatment for duration of four to six weeks.

At this time, it would be impossible for Lindsay to return to Stonehill in her present condition.

I am recommending that Lindsay be given an incomplete grade for the semester in all of her courses. It is my understanding that she would then have 30 days after the final exam to complete her course work and receive the proper credit and grade.

In my opinion, the severity of her illness warrants this accommodation from the school

Please feel free to contact me with any further questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Andrea R. Carlsen, MD
