Application Timeline

Timelines for Early Action or Regular Decision Applicants

You may apply to Harvard under either our Early Action or our Regular Decision program, both of which allow you to compare admission and financial aid offers from other institutions and to wait until May 1 to make a final college choice.

- Early Action candidates apply by November 1 and receive notification by mid December. Learn more about applying Early Action.
- Regular Decision candidates apply by January 1 and receive notification by late March.

Testing information

You must submit the ACT or SAT (with or without writing) and two SAT Subject Tests (except in the case of financial hardship), as part of our application requirements. Beginning with the 2018-2019 application cycle (students applying for Fall 2019 admission), applicants may provide self-reported SAT and ACT test scores (including Subject Tests, Advanced Placement, etc.). Admitted students who decide to enroll at Harvard College will be required to submit official test scores.

- What you'll need to submit

Although it is possible to submit scores from tests taken as late as the December SAT and the February ACT, we recommend that you submit testing as early as possible. Scores submitted before the end of November will allow us to begin our evaluation process for those submitting applications by December 15.

If you are applying Early Action, we would like your testing results by the end of October; however, you may submit the November series if needed. Those results are expected to arrive in time for consideration without the need and expense of “rush reporting.”
