ORDER

The "Joint Motion for Permeant [sic] Injunction" (Docket No. 30) is DENIED without prejudice because the "[Proposed] - Permeant [sic] Injunction" (Docket No. 28):

- 1) is not in the form of an injunction which can be executed by a judicial officer on behalf of the issuing court but rather is drafted in the form of a stipulation;
- 2) includes several typographical errors that render it unfit for endorsement; and
- 3) contains irrelevant information to the extent it purports to base this Court's jurisdiction on the plaintiff's place of organization and principal place of business because jurisdiction over a limited liability company depends upon the residences of its members, not other factors.

When and if the parties submit pleadings that have been proofread and a proposed permanent injunction in proper form for execution, the motion will be reconsidered.

So ordered.
