

3. If Confidential Material is revealed or discussed in interrogatory responses, deposition transcripts or other papers, such papers shall also be marked Confidential.
4. Confidential Material shall not be revealed to any persons, except for the following: (a) counsel of record and their attorneys, clerical, paralegal and secretarial staff, including contract employees; (b) stenographers and their staffs; (c) parties to this lawsuit and his, her or its representatives; and (d) the Court and its officers.
5. Confidential Material may be copied, and summaries, digests or abstracts may be made, but all such copies, digests, abstracts and summaries (including electronic copies, digests, abstracts and summaries) shall be considered Confidential and shall be subject to the provisions of this Order.
6. Confidential Material shall only be included in filings with the court if, and to the extent that, the filing party determines that it is reasonably necessary to do so. Any Confidential Material filed shall be treated as follows:
 - a. The parties shall file the papers containing Confidential Material in unredacted form under seal, with copies served on all parties. In addition, a courtesy copy of any papers filed under seal shall be sent to Chambers.
 - b. The papers shall also be filed in redacted form on ECF – that is, with redactions of any Confidential Material (including references to Confidential Material).
7. Modification of, or relief from, this Order may be sought by any party upon showing of good cause.
8. Within 30 days of the conclusion of this Action, plaintiff shall return to Aetna the Confidential Material, and all electronic and paper copies, digests, abstracts and summaries thereof, or certify in writing that they have destroyed all Confidential Material, and all electronic and paper copies, digests, abstracts and summaries thereof. The provisions of this Order restricting communication, treatment and use of Confidential Material, shall continue to be binding after the termination of this Action.

Dated: March 9, 2018

/s/Richard G. Stearns
U.S.D.J.