PLAINTIFF MARTIN AFFILIATED, LLC'S RESPONSES TO DEFENDANTS' REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Martin Affiliated, LLC ("Martin") provides the following objections and responses to First Set of Requests for Production of Documents ("Requests") propounded by Defendants Apple Inc. (named as Apple Computer, Inc.) and Aftermath Records d/b/a Aftermath Entertainment.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

The following General Objections apply to and are incorporated in each and every response to each and every Request, whether or not such General Objections are expressly incorporated by reference in such response.

1. Martin objects to the Requests to the extent they collectively or individually seek information or documents subject to or protected by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product privilege or any other privilege or protection from disclosure. Martin hereby invokes all such privileges to the extent implicated by each Request and exclude privileged and protected information from its responses to the Requests. Any disclosure of information protected by those privileges is inadvertent, and is not intended to waive any privilege or protection.

2. Martin objects to the Requests to the extent they purport to impose on Martin any obligations that are different from or greater than any duty imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, or any other applicable law or rule.

3. Martin objects to the Requests as duplicative, unduly burdensome, and harassing to the extent they seek information that is equally available to Defendants, or information that could be derived or ascertained by Defendants with substantially the same effort that would be required of Martin from review of the documents produced in this case.

4. Martin objects to the Requests to the extent they seek disclosure of items that are not in Martin's possession, custody, or control, or that are publicly available.

5. Martin objects to the Requests to the extent they seek items that are confidential, proprietary, trade secret information, and/or competitively sensitive material. Martin will disclose such responsive, non-privileged information only upon entry of, and in accordance with the terms of, an appropriate protective order.

6. To the extent that the Requests seek information concerning an identified contention or factual issue, Martin objects on the grounds that Martin has not completed its investigation of the facts relevant to this case. Martin's responses are necessarily preliminary and are made without prejudice to its right to disclose, introduce or rely upon information that may be later discovered or produced.

7. Martin will make reasonable efforts to search for information in the places where it is reasonably likely to be found, and Martin objects to the Requests to the extent they purport to require a broader search.

8. In responding to the Requests, Martin does not waive, or intend to waive, any privilege or objection, including, but not limited to, any objections to the competency, relevance, materiality, or admissibility of any of the items disclosed in response to the Requests. No objection or response made in these responses and objections shall be deemed to constitute a representation by Martin as to the existence or non-existence of the items requested.

9. Martin objects to Requests containing the defined term “document(s)” as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent that the term as used in any Request expands Martin’s duty to produce documents or items beyond the scope required of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Martin also objects to Requests containing the defined term “document(s)” to the extent that any Request containing the defined term seeks information that is privileged, protected and confidential. Martin also objects to the extent use of the defined term “document(s)” is intended to seek information or items that are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence of information.

10. Martin objects to the Requests as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent any Request requires Martin to provide information that is different from or at a different time than as required under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2).

11. Martin objects to the Requests as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent any Request commands or requires Martin to provide responses or items in any manner or to any extent that is different than the scope provided by Rules 33 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

12. Martin objects to Requests containing the defined term “Eminem” as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent the term includes any person(s), or entity or entities other than the individual Marshall B. Mathers III professionally known as Eminem.

13. Martin objects to the definition contained in paragraph 10 of Defendants’ Definitions and Instructions as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, unintelligible and unduly burdensome. Martin interprets defined terms as set forth herein and other terms according to its best understanding of such terms, including the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO REQUESTS

REQUEST NO. 1:

All documents that You reviewed or relied upon in drafting Your Complaint in this action.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 1:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 2:

All documents that You refer to in Your Complaint.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 2:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 3:

All documents that You refer to in any of Your responses to Defendants' First Set of Interrogatories, served concurrently with these Requests for Production.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 3:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 4:

All documents that You reviewed or relied upon in preparing Your responses to Defendants' First Set of Interrogatories.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 4:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Plaintiffs will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 5:

All documents that You refer to in Your Initial Disclosures in this action.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 5:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 6:

All documents that relate to any of Your allegations in Your Complaint.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 6:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome in that it does not define what it means to “relate to” any of Martin’s allegations in the Complaint. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 7:

All documents that support, or that are contrary to, Your contention that Apple has distributed Eminem recordings embodying the works that are the subject of your Complaint “pursuant to a purported license with Universal,” as alleged by You in Paragraph 12 of Your Complaint.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 7:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome. Martin objects to the language “contrary to” as vague and ambiguous, and that it would involve analysis by counsel which is protected by the work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 8:

All documents that support, or that are contrary to, Your contention that “Eight Mile and Martin have never authorized Universal to license the works to Apple,” as alleged by You in Paragraph 12 of Your Complaint.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 8:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad and unduly burdensome. Martin objects to the language “contrary to” as vague and ambiguous, and that it would involve analysis by counsel which is protected by the work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants. Martin further objects to the extent the request seeks expert testimony or opinion.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 9:

All documents that support, or that are contrary to, Your contention that “Eight Mile and Martin have never authorized Universal to engage in reproduction or distribution of the digital transmissions through third parties or otherwise,” as alleged by You in Paragraph 12 of Your Complaint.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 9:

See Response to Request No. 8.

REQUEST NO. 10:

All documents that support, or that are contrary to, Your contention that “Universal has, on any number of occasions, asked Eight Mile and Martin to execute agreements allowing Apple to reproduce and distribute the digital transmissions, but Eight Mile and Martin have not provided that permission,” as alleged by You in Paragraph 12 of Your Complaint.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 10:

See Response to Request No. 8.

REQUEST NO. 11:

All documents that support, or that are contrary to, Your claim that You have suffered damages (including without limitation any actual damages that you may seek under 17 U.S.C. § 504) as a result of any of Defendants’ actions.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 11:

See Response to Request No. 8.

REQUEST NO. 12:

All documents that constitute, refer to or relate to communications You have had with any Person (including without limitation Eminem, or any of Eminem’s representatives) regarding this lawsuit, or the lawsuit captioned F.B.T. Productions, LLC et al. v. Aftermath Records d/b/a Aftermath Entertainment et al., Case No. CV-07-03314 (C.D. Cal.), or any of the matters alleged in either action.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 12:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants. Martin further objects to the extent that such documents are not relevant to the claims in the above-captioned matter. Martin further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent it seeks discovery in a separate action entitled F.B.T. Productions, LLC, et al. v. Aftermath Records d/b/a Aftermath Entertainment, et al., Case No. CV-07-03314 (C.D. Cal.), to which Martin is not a party, and which such discovery is subject to a separate scheduling order inapplicable to this action. Martin further objects to the extent the request seeks expert testimony or opinion.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 13:

All documents that constitute, refer to or relate to communications You have had with any Person regarding Eminem.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 13:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, in that it does not define or limit communications with “any Person” or “regarding” Eminem. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants. Martin further objects to the extent the request seeks expert testimony or opinion.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not already been produced.

REQUEST NO. 14:

All documents that constitute, refer to or relate to communications You have had with Eminem or any of Eminem’s representatives.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 14:

See Response to Request 13.

REQUEST NO. 15:

All documents that discuss, refer to or relate to the March 9, 1998 Agreement, including without limitation Paragraph 6 thereof.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 15:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Martin further objects to this Request to the extent the information requested is within the possession, custody or control of Defendants. Martin further objects to the extent the request seeks expert testimony or opinion.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not already been produced.

REQUEST NO. 16:

All documents that discuss, refer to or relate to the July 2, 2003 Agreement, including without limitation Paragraph 6 thereof.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 16:

See Response to Request 15.

REQUEST NO. 17:

All documents that discuss, refer to or relate to the distribution of Eminem sound recordings that embody any of the works that are the subject of your Complaint, including the distribution of the same as digital downloads, mastertones, ringtones, or digital streams.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 17:

See Response to Request 15.

REQUEST NO. 18:

All documents sufficient to identify all Persons that have an ownership interest in each of the works for which You seek damages through Your Complaint.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 18:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General Objections, Martin responds that relevant information that may be within the scope of this Request may be determined by Defendants' examination of the Complaint filed in this matter, in particular paragraph 8, and collective Exhibit A attached to the Complaint. Defendants are in possession of the Complaint and Exhibit A referenced therein and the burden of deriving that information is substantially the same for Defendants as for Martin and therefore Martin refers Defendants to same. Further, see Schedule 1, Plaintiffs' Compositions, attached to Martin's Interrogatory Responses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not already been produced.

REQUEST NO. 19:

All documents sufficient to identify any predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, or other entities within the operation or control of Plaintiff.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 19:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Martin will produce relevant, non-privileged documents responsive to this request to the extent they have not been already produced.

REQUEST NO. 20:

All documents that discuss, relate to or refer to any expert witness(es) that You have communicated with regarding the claims in this action, including without limitation all correspondence, billing records, documents received from such expert witness, documents relied upon by such expert witness in forming his or her opinion, and a curriculum vitae for such expert witness retained by You.

ANSWER TO REQUEST NO. 20:

Martin incorporates its General Objections above. Martin specifically objects to this Request to the extent it calls for information protected by the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine. Martin further objects to this Request as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, unduly burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The expert witness disclosure deadline has not yet occurred and any request for such information is premature.

Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Martin will produce relevant and discoverable documents at the appropriate time.
