COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Now comes the Plaintiff, Pantera Partnership ("Plaintiff"), by and through its attorneys, Hertz Schram PC, and for its causes of action against the above-named Defendant, states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff consists of members of the world famous music group known as "Pantera".
2. This case involves the above-named Defendant's blatant and unauthorized infringement, dilution, and otherwise actionable conduct regarding Plaintiff's world famous trademark and service mark PANTERA.
3. As averred below consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a), Plaintiff alleges claims for federal trademark and service mark infringement and dilution, false designation of origin or sponsorship, false advertising, unfair competition and cyberpiracy under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051, et seq., the Federal Trademark Dilution Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c), and the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d), as well as state law claims for unfair competition, tortious interference with business expectancy, breach of implied contract, and conversion.

4. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks a permanent injunction preventing the above-named Defendant from using the distinctive PANTERA trademark and service mark as his Internet domain name, www.pantera.com, along with an award of damages, attorney fees, and costs.

THE PARTIES

5. Plaintiff, Pantera Partnership ("Plaintiff") is a Texas partnership, with its principal place of business in Texas.

6. Defendant, Leif Alfenas ("Defendant"), an individual, is a citizen of the State of Michigan, residing at 13481 Phelps Street, Southgate, Michigan 48195.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332, and 1338, as well as 15 U.S.C. § 1121, which gives this Court jurisdiction over all claims arising under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051, et seq., the Federal Trademark Dilution Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c), and the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d).

8. This Court also has jurisdiction for all state law claims pursuant to 28

U.S.C. § 1367.

9. Venue is proper pursuant 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) given that:
  - a. Defendant resides in this judicial district;
  - b. the events giving rise to this action occurred in this judicial district;
and
  - c. Defendant is found in this judicial district.

BACKGROUND AND FACTS

10. Plaintiff owns the trademark and the service mark PANTERA.

11. Plaintiff has exclusively utilized the PANTERA name in commerce and for commercial purposes for the past twenty-four (24) years.

12. The recording and live performing artist "Pantera" is a landmark band which, since the early 1980s, has sold more than fifteen (15) million units of its various albums, in addition to substantial merchandise sales, including millions of t-shirts. Further, "Pantera" has sold millions of tickets for its worldwide tours. "Pantera" continues to sell significant recordings and merchandise today. For example, last week alone, approximately 7,800 copies of its recordings were sold.

13. Defendant is not now and has never been a partner in Pantera Partnership (Plaintiff).

14. As a consequence, Defendant has no ownership interest in the PANTERA trademark and service mark.

15. Put succinctly, Defendant is in no way affiliated with or sponsored by Plaintiff and has no authority to use the PANTERA trademark and service mark to identify the Internet website found at www.pantera.com.

16. More particularly, Defendant operates, maintains, exercises control, traffics in, and/or uses over the Internet the domain name www.pantera.com. See Exhibit 1: Example of Defendant's Relationship to the Internet domain name www.pantera.com.

17. Further, upon information and belief, Defendant registered or otherwise acquired the Internet domain name www.pantera.com. See Exhibit 1.

18. Defendant's operation, maintenance, exercise of control, registration, trafficking in, and/or use of the Internet domain name www.pantera.com was initially conducted on behalf of Plaintiff and with Plaintiff's consent as an independent contractor. Put another way, www.pantera.com served as Plaintiff's official website and was listed as such on record and compact disc packaging as well as on the website itself through 2002, during which time Defendant's conduct concerning www.pantera.com continued with the permission and at the sole discretion of Plaintiff.

19. However, during the past several years, based upon Defendant's derogatory comments on www.panterachat.com regarding Plaintiff, Plaintiff determined it was in its best interest to regain control over its official website, www.pantera.com, and notified Defendant that he was no longer authorized to operate, maintain, exercise control of, register, traffic in, and/or use the Internet domain name www.pantera.com. See Exhibit 2: Message Board Excerpts. Correspondingly, Plaintiff demanded that Defendant deliver www.pantera.com to Plaintiff. Plaintiff's action in this respect is understandable given that www.pantera.com and www.panterachat.com were linked to each other and Plaintiff did not want the derogatory comments on www.panterachat.com to be associated with its official website at www.pantera.com. Defendant is the site administrator for www.panterachat.com, an online bulletin board. Defendant's first amendment rights are preserved as Plaintiff has no objection to his continued use of www.panterachat.com as a fan site to express his opinions.

20. To date, Plaintiff's efforts to resolve this matter this matter with Defendant have proved fruitless.

21. On July 17, 2007, and in order to avoid the instant litigation, counsel for Plaintiff sent correspondence to Defendant requesting that:

- a. Defendant cease and desist all ownership, operation, maintenance, control over, registration, trafficking in, and/or use of the Internet domain name www.pantera.com;
- b. Defendant deliver the Internet domain name www.pantera.com and any required documents of transfer to Plaintiff; and
- c. Defendant stop using the Internet domain name www.pantera.com for any purpose.

Exhibit 3: 7/17/07 Correspondence.

22. Counsel for Defendant responded in a letter dated July 24, 2007. Exhibit 4: 7/24/07 Response.

23. Because Defendant refuses to resolve this matter without litigation, Plaintiff must now come before this Court to obtain redress through the following Counts.

Re: www.pantera.com

Dear Mr. Alfenas:

My law firm has been retained and I write this letter on behalf of the Pantera Partnership (the "Partnership"). As you are aware, the Partnership consists of members of the famous music group known as Pantera. As you are also aware, the music group Pantera's name was and remains used in commerce for commercial purposes. In addition, there is no dispute that you are not a partner of the Partnership, and that you have no ownership interest in the "Pantera" name. Rather, you operate, maintain, and/or exercise control over the domain name pantera.com. Your control of pantera.com has been called to my attention and you are hereby put on notice that your conduct is in clear violation of federal law.

First, the Partnership is the owner of the "Pantera" name, and it is the sole holder of all intellectual property rights contained therein. By operating, maintaining and/or exercising control over pantera.com, you have infringed and diluted the "Pantera" name in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq. As a consequence of your conduct, the Partnership is entitled to institute legal proceedings against you to recover any profits you may received, any damages sustained by the Partnership, including lost profits and/or opportunity costs, as well as the cost of the action instituted by the Partnership against you. 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a). In filing suit, the Partnership will seek statutory damages in the amount of $100,000.00. 15 U.S.C. § 1117(c). Furthermore, the Partnership is entitled to an injunction, temporarily, preliminarily, and permanently enjoining you and any person or entity acting in concert with you from owning, operating, maintaining and/or exercising control over pantera.com. 15 U.S.C. § 1116.

Second, you are in violation of the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act ("ACPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d). The ACPA applies to a person who registers, traffics in, or uses a domain name that is identical or confusingly similar to a distinctive mark or that is identical or confusing similar to or dilutive of a famous mark. 15 U.S.C. § 1125(d)(1)(A). Under the ACPA, the Partnership may elect to recover—instead of actual damages and profits—an award of statutory damages in the amount of $100,000.00. 15 U.S.C. § 1117(d). In addition, the Partnership is entitled to injunctive relief under 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a).

As you can see, the Partnership is serious about pursuing all of its claims against you, as well as any person or entity acting in concert with you in the ownership, operation, maintenance, control over, registration, trafficking in, and/or use of pantera.com. Further, there is simply no defense for your conduct given that you are not an owner of the "Pantera" and given your relationship to pantera.com. As a consequence, the Partnership demands that:

- (1) You cease and desist all ownership, operation, maintenance, control over, registration, trafficking in, and/or use of pantera.com;
- (2) You deliver the domain name pantera.com and any required documents of transfer to the Partnership; and
- (3) You agree to stop using the domain name pantera.com for any purpose.

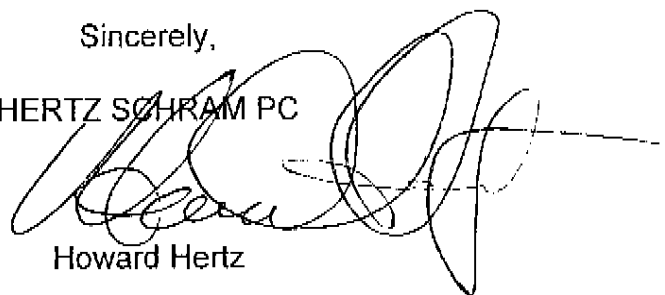

Should these requests be met by July 31, 2007, the Partnership will not file suit against you. If the foregoing requests are not met by that date, however, the Partnership will have no choice but to bring an action against you in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan in order to vindicate its rights by pursuing all available remedies, including money damages, injunctive relief, and attorney fees.

I strongly urge you to consult immediately with legal counsel with respect to the above. If you elect not to retain counsel, please contact me by July 24, 2007 so that we can discuss an amicable resolution of this matter.

This letter is not intended to enumerate all actions or claims that the Partnership may have against you and all rights are hereby reserved.

Sincerely,

HERTZ SCHRAM PC

Re: Pantera allegations against Mr. Leif Alfenas.

Dear Mr. Hertz:

I have received a copy of your recent correspondence on behalf of the Pantera Partnership, to Mr. Leif Alfenas. Mr. Alfenas has contacted me to request that I investigate and evaluate whether any of the rather inflammatory assertions contained in your letter actually are supported by fact or law. I'm delighted to examine your arguments carefully.

Although the matter remains under investigation, and I am willing to review any evidence or authority that you may wish to forward to me for my consideration, my initial impression is that you have no valid affirmative case to make under established trademark law in the Sixth Circuit. Moreover, even if you had an affirmative case to make, your clients nevertheless would be barred from any relief by the affirmative defenses of acquiescence and laches, as well as other affirmative defenses (such as unclean hands) that are available.

Indeed, there is no dispute that the Pantera Partnership and its members all have knowingly and voluntarily acquiesced in the publication of this non-commercial Website since the time that Mr. Alfenas started publishing it. There also is no dispute that the presumptive laches period for any hypothetical trademark claim expired many years ago.

Howard Hertz, Esq.
HERTZ SCHRAM, P.C.
July 24, 2007

Moreover, Mr. Alfenas already has brought to my attention more than sufficient evidence of affirmative conduct on Pantera's part, as well as evidence of reasonable reliance by Mr. Alfenas, to support a robust and outcome-determinative defense based on acquiescence. See Profitess Physical Therapy Ctr. v. Pro-Fit Orthopedic & Sports Physical Therapy P.C., 314 F.3d 62, 68-69 (2nd Cir. 2002); Kellogg Company v. Exxon Corp., 209 F.3d 562, 572 (6th Cir. 2000) (explaining difference between laches and acquiescence).

What remain in dispute, at this point, are each and all of the assertions made in your letter. Your repeated contention that the bare allegations and legal conclusions you have asserted are, in some way, "undisputed," is not correct, and with all respect, is categorically rejected. As you know, if your client elects to initiate litigation, the burden of production and persuasion will be on you. You are welcome to persuade me, if you can, that your client actually has what it takes to prove your bare allegations in a court of law.

You appear to be eager to litigate in the Eastern District of Michigan. Please review Judge Cleland's sound and well-reasoned decision in Ford Motor Co. v. 2600 Enterprises, 177 F. Supp. 2d 661 (E. D. Mi. 2001), and then let me know whether you would prefer to litigate on something more of a clean slate, here in the Western District of Michigan. Of course, a West Michigan venue does not change the binding effect of Sixth Circuit precedent.

While you are reviewing the relevant case-law, please also be sure to consider Lucas Nursery and Landscaping, Inc. v. Grosse, 359 F.3d 806 (6th Cir. 2004), and Taubman Co. v. Webfeats, 319 F.3d 770, 777-78 (6th Cir. 2003) ("We find that Mishko(I)'s use of Taubman's mark in the domain name 'taubmansucks.com' is purely an exhibition of Free Speech, and the Lanham Act is not invoked."). See also Bosley Medical Institute, Inc. v. Kremer, 403 F.3d 672 (9th Cir. 2005); Lamparello v. Falwell, 420 F.3d 309 (4th Cir. 2005); TMI, Inc. v. Maxwell, 368 F.3d 433 (5th Cir. 2004); Savannah College of Art and Design, Inc. v. Houeix, 369 F. Supp. 2d 929 (S.D. Ohio 2004).

If protected speech in the form of a non-commercial "gripe site," routinely is held not to violate either the Lanham Trademark Act, or the 1999 Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, see id., and – in the 2600 Enterprises case – an "Internet joke" was held to be so transparently non-commercial that the trademark plaintiff (Ford) failed even to state a claim sufficient to survive FED. R. CIV. P. 12(b)(6), then I simply cannot conceive how you intend to argue with a straight face, to any court, that the entirely sincere and non-commercial protected expression published on a "fan site" by Mr. Alfenas, should trigger any different outcome than the uniform pro-freedom outcome in the "gripe site" cases. Cf. Spacyy v.

Howard Hertz, Esq.

Burgar, 207 F. Supp. 2d 1037, 1046-47 (C.D. Cal. 2001) (declining, on Due Process grounds, to exercise "effects test" jurisdiction over foreign publisher of an apparently sincere "fan site," because there is no apparent intent by the publisher to harm a California celebrity; "The Celebrity 1000 website expressly disclaims any endorsement of the site by the listed celebrities, and nothing in the evidence presented, or in anything the Court has found by accessing Burgar's site, contains any derogatory statement about Spacey.").

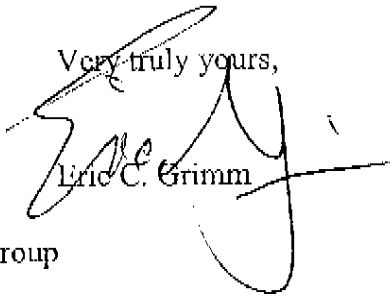

In the past, Mr. Alfenas enjoyed a positive and mutually-respectful relationship with your client(s). He is now at something of a loss, and so am I, to understand your clients' more recent litigious impulses, and their apparent desire to squander the goodwill that everyone concerned had developed some years ago.

I think it would be a shame, in this instance, for your clients to squander resources on lengthy and protracted litigation. Then again, I've been more than willing, in the past, to help clients stand up for principle in court, when they are left with no other alternative.

Please give me a call, so we can discuss whether it is possible to resolve this matter through cooperation and compromise, rather than conflict. Alternatively, if certain cowboys from Hell -- in a ([participle omitted] hostile) vulgar display of power -- remain bent on accelerating this metaphorical locomotive of litigation toward the inevitable, death-trap, train-wreck, clash with reality, then I suppose that life will be more interesting for the next few months, and I'll get to make more really bad, groaner references to song titles.

Thanks for your attention. Please give me a call so we can discuss this matter like reasonable people.

Very truly yours,

Eric C. Grimm
