FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action for declaratory and injunctive relief as well as damages under the Fair Housing Act (FHA), 42 U.S.C. §1301 et seq. and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. § 794(a).
2. The Plaintiff is a person with a disability who applied to live in Oakland University's on-campus housing.
3. The application, after initially being approved, was denied for the purported reason he was not in a program leading to a degree.

4. Because of his disability, Plaintiff cannot enroll in one of the University's programs leading to a degree.
5. Plaintiff is enrolled as a full-time student in the University's OPTIONS program, which does not offer a degree or certificate of completion.
6. The policy of the University has a disparate impact on students with cognitive impairments who are students of the OPTIONS program because it prohibits them from living in on-campus housing.
7. Plaintiff, through his counsel, requested as a reasonable accommodation, that the policy be waived or modified for him. The University denied this request.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1343. Plaintiff's claim for declaratory and injunctive relief are authorized under 28 U.S.C. § 2201-2202 and 42 U.S.C. § 1983. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants have acted under color of state law.
9. Venue is proper in this U.S. District Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), because it is the district where the Defendant resides and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the Plaintiff's claim arose here.

III. PARTIES

10. The Plaintiff, Micah Fialka-Feldman, is a 24-year-old man, from Huntington Woods, Oakland County, Michigan.
11. Micah Fialka-Feldman has a cognitive impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, specifically, but not limited to, learning.

12. Micah Fialka-Feldman is a student in the OPTIONS program at Oakland University.
13. The Defendant, OAKLAND UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES, is the governing body of Oakland University (OU) located in Rochester, Oakland County, Michigan.
14. The Board's authority to act is pursuant to state law, MCL 390.151 et. seq., which grants the board full authority to make all decisions relevant to this matter.
15. Defendant Gary D. Russi is Oakland University's President since 1996 who also has decision making authority for the University and is sued here in his official capacity.
16. Defendant Mary Beth Snyder is Vice President of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at Oakland University. In that capacity, Ms. Snyder is responsible for student service programs such as housing. Defendant Snyder is sued in her official capacity.
17. Defendant Lionel Maten is the Director of University Housing at Oakland University. In that capacity he is responsible for the operation of the University's dormitory and apartment facilities including the administration of its policies for student housing eligibility and is sued in his official capacity.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18. Mr. Fialka-Feldman began attending classes at OU in the winter term of 2004.
19. Beginning in the fall term of 2007, OU launched the OPTIONS Program and admitted Mr. Fialka-Feldman as a student.
20. The OPTIONS program is an activity or program of OU.

21. The OPTIONS program was designed for students with cognitive impairments that could not be admitted to OU through the regular admissions process.
22. OU admitted Mr. Fialka-Feldman as a student to the OPTIONS program. The OPTIONS program requires each student, among other responsibilities, to take a minimum of 12 credits hours of courses each semester and pay full tuition.
23. Additionally, Mr. Fialka-Feldman as a student at OU participates in numerous school activities, the same as do other students admitted to other programs at OU, including: attending over 25 courses at the University, member of Alpha Phi Omega fraternity, member of Hillel student organization, member of the leadership retreats at OU, Up Until Dawn, Peace Group, active in the student government election 2008, and Social Work Club.
24. Mr. Fialka-Feldman must take several buses each day from his home in Huntington Woods, Michigan, to OU's campus in Rochester, Michigan. Upon information and belief his commute is approximately three hours per day.
25. Because of the long commute and because he wanted a complete university experience as do other persons his age, Mr. Fialka-Feldman began making inquiries about living on-campus in the spring of 2006.
26. Mr. Fialka-Feldman is capable of living on his own in a dormitory setting and if any supports are needed, a local agency, MORC, is ready and able to provide assistance.
27. In the spring of 2007, Micah Fialka-Feldman and his father, Rich Feldman, took a pre-arranged tour of the dormitory housing at OU that was arranged by the Director of Housing, Defendant Lionel Maten. As previously stated, Defendant

- Maten is responsible for the administration of OU's policies for student housing eligibility.
28. In the Fall of 2007, Micah Fialka-Feldman applied for on-campus housing in the dormitories at OU.
 29. On October 6, 2007, Rich Feldman submitted a check for $100.00 to OU for deposit on a dormitory room for Micah Fialka-Feldman.
 30. On November 14, 2007, Rich Feldman received an e-mail confirming Micah Fialka-Feldman was approved and he could begin living in a dorm room on-campus on January 6, 2008.
 31. Then, on November 29, 2007, Micah Fialka-Feldman and his family were informed, by e-mail, that he was not eligible to live in the dorm.
 32. On December 3, 2007, the $100.00 deposit was refunded to Rich Feldman from the student account.
 33. On April 25, 2008, Mr. Fialka-Feldman's parents paid his tuition for the Winter Term 2008 to OU.
 34. On May 5, 2008, Mr. Fialka-Feldman and his family provided OU officials with numerous letters of support, which resulted in a meeting being arranged with OU's Vice President for Student Affairs, Defendant Mary Beth Snyder.
 35. The meeting took place on May 22, 2008, and Defendant Snyder sent a letter the following day, which stated: "The University maintains resident halls for individuals who meet our admissions requirements and are enrolled in coursework leading to a degree. From time to time we do house students from other universities who are earning credits for transfer to another institution. . ."

36. Upon information and belief, OU has provided on-campus housing to students taking courses when they are not admitted to degree programs, including but not limited to, students in the English-As-A-Second-Language program.
37. In August 2008, Mr. Fialka-Feldman's parents met with Defendant Snyder but were unable to persuade her to change her mind.
38. At a meeting of the Board of Trustees on September 17, 2008, Mr. Fialka-Feldman presented a petition asking the Board to change its decision and allow him to live on campus.
39. On September 24, 2008, Defendant Snyder sent a letter to Mr. Fialka-Feldman informing him that she would not change her decision.
40. On October 7, 2008, legal counsel for Mr. Fialka-Feldman, Chris E. Davis, contacted legal counsel for OU, Victor A. Zimbardi, by letter advising him that it was Plaintiff's belief that OU's housing policy was discriminatory due to its disparate impact on persons with disabilities, specifically persons with cognitive impairments.
41. Additionally, Plaintiff's counsel requested as a reasonable accommodation that the University waive the policy for Mr. Fialka-Feldman because he could not enroll in a program leading to a degree due to his disability.
42. In a letter on November 7, 2008, OU's legal counsel denied the request for reasonable accommodation and denied that the housing eligibility policy was discriminatory.
43. In a letter dated and faxed on November 14, 2008, Plaintiff's counsel repeated the request for a reasonable accommodation on behalf of Mr. Fialka-Feldman.

44. OU's legal counsel again denied the requested reasonable accommodation by letter dated November 17, 2008.

45. Mr. Fialka-Feldman has been extended most or all of the privileges of an OU student except housing.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I: VIOLATION OF THE FAIR HOUSING ACT DISPARATE IMPACT

46. Paragraphs 1 through 45 are incorporated by reference herein.

47. The dormitory housing at OU is considered a dwelling pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 3602(b).

48. The Plaintiff, Micah Fialka-Feldman, is a person with a handicap (disability) as defined in to 42 U.S.C. § 3602(h).

49. The Plaintiff applied for and is otherwise qualified for on-campus housing at OU.

50. Plaintiff's application was rejected and housing remained available after he was rejected.

51. The housing policy of OU, enforced by Russi, Snyder and Maten, which reserves on-campus housing only for those students enrolled in programs leading to a degree, has a disparate impact for it caused an adverse effect on persons with disabilities, specifically cognitive impairments, by excluding the Plaintiff and his fellow students in the OPTIONS program from on-campus housing in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 3604 (f)(1) and (2).

52. As a result of Defendants Russi, Snyder and Maten's actions, Mr. Fialka-Feldman has suffered significant injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

53. 42 U.S.C. §3613 allows a court to enjoin the discriminatory actions of the aforementioned defendants.

COUNT II: VIOLATION OF SECTION 504 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973 DISCRIMINATION

54. Paragraphs 1 through 53 are incorporated by reference herein.

55. OU is a college or university and as such all operations of OU are “programs or activities” covered by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. 29 U.S.C. § 794 (b) (2) (A).

56. Plaintiff is a person with a handicap (disability) as defined under the Rehabilitation Act.

57. OU is a recipient of federal funds.

58. Pursuant to the regulations of U.S. Department of Education, Mr. Fialka-Feldman, is capable of meeting the necessary requirements to live in a dormitory setting, and is therefore a qualified handicapped person. 34 C.F.R. § 104.3(l).

59. The policies and actions of the Defendants, Oakland Board of Trustees, Russi, Snyder, and Maten, have resulted in the Plaintiff being excluded from participation in, or being denied the benefits of, or being subjected to discrimination under the program solely by reason of his handicap in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 794 and 34 C.F.R. § 104.4.

60. As a result of the actions of all four of the Defendants, Mr. Fialka-Feldman has suffered significant emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation.

61. 42 U.S.C. § 2000d-7 allows this court to grant all remedies both at law and in equity for violation of the aforementioned statute.

COUNT III: VIOLATION OF SECTION 504 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973 DENIAL OF REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

62. Paragraphs 1 through 61 are incorporated by reference herein.
63. Plaintiff is a person with a handicap (disability) as defined under the Rehabilitation Act.
64. Plaintiff, with or without, reasonable accommodations is otherwise qualified to live in on-campus housing at OU.
65. OU is a recipient of federal funds.
66. The refusal by the Defendants, Oakland Board of Trustees, Russi, Snyder, and Maten, to waive or modify OU's housing policy as a reasonable accommodation denies the Plaintiff the choice of housing by excluding him from participation in, or being denied the benefits of, or being subjected to discrimination under this program solely by reason of his handicap. This failure to accommodate is in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 794 and 34 CFR 104.45(a).
67. As a result of all four of the Defendants' actions, Mr. Fialka-Feldman has suffered significant emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation.
68. 42 U.S.C. § 2000d-7 allows this court to grant all remedies both at law and in equity for violation of the aforementioned statute.

VI. JURY DEMAND

69. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury in this matter.
