EXHIBIT 5

(248)608-9250 Fax (248)608-9252 www.tri-countycourtreporters.com

Transcript of the Testimony of Mary Beth Snyder

Date: September 15, 2009

Volume: I

Case: Feldman v Oakland University

Printed On: September 21, 2009

Deposition of Mary Beth Snyder

	Page 41		Page 43
1	nonuniversity individuals or university employees?	1	magnitude, when we had never operated in the past by
2	Q. I'm asking at this point about families of students at the	2	allowing nonmatriculated students in an academic degree
3	university.	3	program to live in university housing. That was the
4	A. I didn't receive any e-mails.	4	conversation that went on.
5	Q. How about from faculty or staff at the university?	5	Q. Going back to financial burden on the university. It's
6	A. Not, I don't recall getting e-mails.	6	been suggested that it might create some space problems in
7	Q. How about letters or correspondence?	7	terms of the need for more rooms or that, do you see that
8	A. I don't recall any formal letters or correspondence.	8	as a problem?
9	Q. From staff or faculty?	9	A. It has been a problem in the past three years, that space
10	A. From staff or faculty.	10	has been limited. And having individuals who are not
11	Q. How about from parents?	11	formally admitted in the program living on campus, would
12	A. I don't recall any.	12	certainly deny a student who is on a wait list space in the
13	Q. Did you get any letters, e-mails, or correspondence from	13	residence halls.
14	students saying they didn't want OPTIONS participants in on	14	Q. Is there a current wait list for students for housing?
15	campus housing?	15	A. Yes, there is.
16	A. I don't recall receiving any from students.	16	Q. Do you know how many persons are on that wait list?
17	Q. Would there be a record kept of any of these type	17	A. No, I do not.
18	correspondence, either electronic or in written form?	18	Q. Was there a wait list in the winter of 2009?
19	A. It's possible.	19	A. The winter of 2009, no.
20	Q. Would you have kept a record?	20	Q. How about the fall of 2008?
21	A. I might have kept a record if I received those kinds of	21	A. Wait a minute, that was last winter.
22	correspondence that you're talking about.	22	Q. January of 2009.
23	Q. Did you have any conversations with students, faculty, or	23	A. January of 2009, we do not typically have wait lists in the
24	staff about OPTIONS participants when they expressed, don't	24	winter term.
25	have them in campus housing?	25	Q. So if I'm understanding correctly, tell me if I'm not
 	Page 42		Page 44
1.	A. I did have conversations.	1	getting this right. The start of the semester, start of
2	Q. And who were those conversations with?	2	the school year generally in the fall in September, you
3	A. Those conversations were with individuals who questioned	3	have wait lists?
4	whether or not nonenrolled students should be living in	4	A. That is correct.
5	university housing.	5	Q. Usually by the winter term, January of that academic year,
6	Q. Were these students or were these faculty members?	6	the wait list is no longer, there's no longer a wait list?
7	A. These were staff members.	7	A. That's correct, because of attrition.
8	Q. And what were their names?		The state of the s
	Q. And what were then harries:	8	Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of
9	A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz.	9	Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available?
9	A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall.		Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available?A. I don't have a number.
	A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed	9	Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available?
10 11 12	A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should	9 10	Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available?A. I don't have a number.Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five?A. I think it's more than five.
10 11	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be 	9 10 11	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse
10 11 12	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? 	9 10 11 12	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on
10 11 12 13 14 15	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not 	9 10 11 12 13	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse
10 11 12 13 14 15	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently
10 11 12 13 14 15 16	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not
10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the opinions expressed, that they should not be, have access to 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not all of them applied to live on campus housing, how would
10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the opinions expressed, that they should not be, have access to a university academic programs such as we have in housing, 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not all of them applied to live on campus housing, how would that create a space problem for you?
10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the opinions expressed, that they should not be, have access to a university academic programs such as we have in housing, that they should not be allowed to enter into contracts. 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not all of them applied to live on campus housing, how would
10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the opinions expressed, that they should not be, have access to a university academic programs such as we have in housing, that they should not be allowed to enter into contracts. Q. So are the conversations such that, this is our policy, it 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not all of them applied to live on campus housing, how would that create a space problem for you? A. The question is if we allowed them. Q. Right.
10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the opinions expressed, that they should not be, have access to a university academic programs such as we have in housing, that they should not be allowed to enter into contracts. Q. So are the conversations such that, this is our policy, it should not be altered, or is it that we just don't want 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not all of them applied to live on campus housing, how would that create a space problem for you? A. The question is if we allowed them. Q. Right. A. We're not in a position to take their contract applications
10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the opinions expressed, that they should not be, have access to a university academic programs such as we have in housing, that they should not be allowed to enter into contracts. Q. So are the conversations such that, this is our policy, it should not be altered, or is it that we just don't want these people in our in campus housing? 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not all of them applied to live on campus housing, how would that create a space problem for you? A. The question is if we allowed them. Q. Right. A. We're not in a position to take their contract applications because they aren't students anymore than
10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 A. This would be Linda Sisson, Lionel Maten, Nancy Schmitz. Those are the individuals I recall. Q. Now, just to be clear, you say the subject was discussed with them, or did they express an opinion that they should not be living, that participants of options should not be living in on campus housing? A. In the context of their understanding, that they were not ever students, any of students, the people in the program. The conversations involved discussions that led to the opinions expressed, that they should not be, have access to a university academic programs such as we have in housing, that they should not be allowed to enter into contracts. Q. So are the conversations such that, this is our policy, it should not be altered, or is it that we just don't want 	9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 Q. In the winter terms, can you give me a general number of how many rooms are open and available? A. I don't have a number. Q. Do you think it's more than five or less than five? A. I think it's more than five. Q. So if you agreed to allow students from the OPTIONS, excuse me, participants from the OPTIONS Program to live on campus, how would there be a space problem, I mean there's only nine, I think there's only nine participants currently in the OPTIONS Program, and my understanding there is not all of them applied to live on campus housing, how would that create a space problem for you? A. The question is if we allowed them. Q. Right. A. We're not in a position to take their contract applications

11 (Pages 41 to 44)