Iris,
Thank you for your response and I do have a few questions. I'm a little confused as to who is selling this domain name. I thought it was registered by Navigation Catalyst and you appear to be from First Look. Who am I dealing with and who will be transferring the domain name?
Can you tell me if there are any other domain names that you have available that have the "wku" component within the domain name? Thank you.

Dear Nathan Stewart,

You have two payment options, one being check and the other is submitting payment to Escrow. The later is preferable because it protects both parties.
