UDRP Response.txt

Dear :

We just received notice of your WIPO complaint regarding the domain name "". To our knowledge, we had not received any prior notice regarding this matter, otherwise, we would have worked with you to amicably resolve this situation, as is our practice. Please rest assured that we endeavor to avoid registering domain names that potentially incorporate or which are confusingly similar to the names or trademarks of others.

Now that we have become aware of this matter, we are prepared to resolve this situation with you by promptly canceling or transferring the domain name to you, upon your confirmation as to your preference. Once you have advised us of your preference, we will need you to stay the proceedings so that we can effect the cancellation or the transfer.

We look forward to resolving this matter with you as soon as we hear back from you.

Kind Regards,
