Videotape deposition of SETH JACOBY, held at the above-mentioned time and place, before
Elizabeth M. Kondor, CCR, CLR and Notary Public.

1 into me.

2 Q. Okay. And now let's talk a little
3 bit about why you think that the ACPA doesn't 4 apply to, for instance, your registration of 5 wunderground.com, with a Q at the beginning of the 6 word?

7 A. Could you write the domain name down?

8 Q. Sure.

9 A. And I never said that I agreed or 10 disagreed necessarily in that case.

11 (Exhibit 129 is received and marked 12 for identification.)

13 A. Are we done with Kide Rock?

14 Q. Yes.

15 Okay. Exhibit 129 is a domain name
16 that I wrote out, and it includes the entire 17 trademark wunderground, with the addition of the 18 letter Q to the front of it, a domain that was 19 registered by Navigation Catalyst System on 20 October 22, 2007.

21 A. Okay. So looking at this domain
22 name, considering I never heard of Weather
23 Underground --

24 Q. Okay. Let's stop right there.

25 A. Okay.

1 trademark, and Post-It, you'd think, is not
2 necessary a generic term either, it's a brand
3 name, right, not unlike wunderground, I guess, 4 Time is a registered trademark, not unlike post is 5 a registered trademark somewhere, I'm sure, as 6 well. So the way the system would work is, it 7 would -- our system would identify 8 postitherequickly.com as interfering or at least 9 matching with post, which is probably owned by 10 Canada Post, or maybe even multiple post offices
11 around the world would claim that as a registered
12 trademark, Post-It, which is owned by the 3M
13 Corporation, which is a registered trademark, but 14 "Post it here right now quickly" is a domain name
15 which is generic in nature and is a phrase.

16 So as you can see, there's a lot
17 of -- you know, so wunderground, while it would 18 have maybe been identified on the surface, 19 considering that the operators never heard of 20 Weather Underground, I mean, I've personally never 21 heard of Weather Underground, would not have been 22 identified as a domain name that would have been 23 at issue.

24 Q. Okay. So the test is whether or not 25 your two or so operators would have actually
